United Baptist holds election at annual session

By Marjorie R. Green

At approximately 9:55 P.M. Tuesday evening, all Parent Body offices of the United Baptist Missionary Convention, Inc. of Maryland were declared vacant.

The Rev. Willie Chambers, secretary to the nominating committee then stepped forward to read the name of Rev. Nathaniel Higgs of Southern Baptist Church into the record.

He became the new leader of Maryland's largest religious body of Afro American Baptists.

After serving several years in various elected positions, including the last four years as first vice president, Rev. Higgs brings to the presidency a wealth of knowledge and understanding of the inner workings of the State Convention as well as a diverse background in the area of Christian leadership.

During his brief acceptance statement, Rev. Higgs thanked delegates and members of his church family for prayers offered in his behalf.

He also promised to carry out the goals and objectives established by the convention and to make the building of a new State Baptist Headquarters one of his top priorities.

Rev. Higgs succeeds the Rev. Dr. Olin P. Moyd who ended his four year tenure just minutes before the election with a fiery annual address that brought delegates to their feet in an emotional outburst that demonstrated their approval of President Moyd's final message entitled "Tending The Fires."

The election took place at the newly completed Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church on Reisterstown Road during the 64th week-long Annual Session of the United Baptist Missionary Convention and Auxiliaries, Inc. of Maryland.

Several hundred delegates representing churches throughout the State of Maryland were on hand to witness the installation service.

The new four year slate of officers includes the Rev. John L. Wright, pastor of First Baptist Church in Guilford as first vice president;

Bishop Bryant returns home

By Evan. Theresa Mercer
AFRO Church Writer

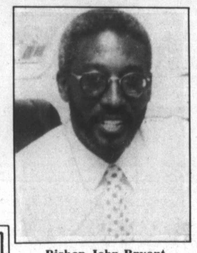
Bishop John Bryant, has returned to America from his West Africa charge earlier than expected.

It was a request from the U.S. Government which caused Bishop Bryant, and his wife Cecelia, to return home.

Around December 24, 1989, Charles Taylor, a native of West Africa, and a troop of about 100 soldiers took upon themselves to try to overthrow Liberia's existing government.

Bishop Bryant is assigned to the 14th AME Episcopal District which is located in West Africa. His charge in West Africa includes such countries as Liberia, Gauna, Nigeria, Sierra Leone.

Bishop Bryant and his wife Cecelia, prayed and agreed that God would give them a French speaking country, and God did just that.



Bishop John Bryant

God gave them favor when he allowed them to form churches in the Ivory Coast.

Bishop Bryant and his wife also asked God to bless the ministry with 100 churches by 1992.

When they went to West Africa, there were already 70 churches and by March of his year, 1990, God had added 31 new churches through this ministry.

Today there are a total of 101 churches in the AME Church 14th Episcopal District.

It is that same 14th Episcopal District, there are now three high schools, two junior high schools, and 20 elementary schools, all operated through the church.

The economy of these countries is suffering and the people are struggling and the church plays a very vital role in education.

The church does all that it can as it continues to do the work of expansion.

Because of the economy, the whole West African church could never afford to come together as a solid body and hold a conference.

Not only was money a problem, traveling dirt roads for great distances hindered people from traveling.

Bishop Bryant challenged the people to use their faith in God, and for the first time ever, the church came together as one. There were many tears shed when the people saw that they were not worshipping alone.

There will be another coming of the church together this month in Sierra Leone, Bishop Bryant and Rev. Cecelia his wife, will be returning there for this meeting.

For as much as the Church is accomplishing, these West African countries are not without political problems.

It is said that Charles Taylor and his people who want to over throw the existing government, are financially backed and trained by Kadafi and Libya.

During the course of these past three months, these soldiers have been raging a battle with government troops.

They are beginning to slowly move down to the capital city.

The American and the British governments felt that the conditions were grave and so they asked all of their citizens to return home.

The tribes involved in this civil war today are the Gios, the Minnas and the Crowns. The President is a Crown.

There was constant conflict between the tribes and now there is fighting.

There are to be free elections in the near future but, Charles Taylor and his people do not believe that the elections will be honest.

For the most part, the present administration is a christian government. The president, Samuel Kanyon Doe is also a christian.

The church is praying that some resolution will take place, hoping that lives would be spared.

Not only are these African brothers and sisters praying, supporters of this West African charge are praying. The church realizes that prayer changes things.
