A Celebration of Life

Ms. Mamie Diggs and Mr. Robert Pinkney were the guests of honor at "A Celebration of Life," their 92nd birthday party given by staff at the Lillian S. Jones Medical Day Care Center. The invocation was given by Ms. Diggs' pastor, Rev. Richard Dickens of New Metropolitan Baptist Church.

Ms. Mamie Diggs was raised in an orphanage run by the Johns Hopkins Hospital. At the age of 18, she went into service for the nurses at Hopkins. She eventually went out on her own doing domestic work. She has lived at the McCullogh Homes for the last 28 years.

Mr. Robert Pinkney served in the United States Navy from 1915 to 1919, after which he became a first class gardener at the Naval Academy in Annapolis. He has done floral arrangements for noted people, such as General Charles De Gaulle of France. He was also a clown and actor on the stage of the Star Theater in Annapolis.

Staff member, Augustine Jennings sang "His Eye Is On the Sparrow", and Wanda Tyler, staff member at Broadway Medical Day Care Center, sang "Memories". A proclamation was presented by Ms. Carine Chen, representative from the Mayor's office. Mr. Michael Richards presented a gift to Ms. Diggs from the staff and Ms. Thelma Partlow presented a gift to Mr. Pinkney.

Guests included Ms. Vonsetta Stokes, daughter of Mr. Pinkney and Mr. Nathaniel Wardell, friend and guardian of Ms. Diggs. The Lillian S. Jones Day Care is run with lots of TLC by Director, Ms. Frances Walford. Their philosophy can be summed up in this poem written by Mrs. Walford:

Strange how we allow time to slip away

And the little things we forget to do or say, somehow God makes it his business to be everywhere.

Reminding those who will listen to that little word called "care."

Ms. Mamie Diggs and Mr. Robert Pinkney are 92 years "young."
