

EXECUTIVE ORDERS

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MARVIN MANDEL, GOVERNOR OF MARYLAND, BY VIRTUE OF THE AUTHORITY VESTED IN ME BY THE CONSTITUTION AND LAWS OF MARYLAND, HEREBY PROMULGATE THE FOLLOWING ORDER, EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY:

1. The grievance procedure embodied in Department of Personnel Policy No. 9, dated August 16, 1971, as set forth in Attachment A to this Executive Order, is adopted and promulgated, and it shall be applicable to all State employees except employees of the University of Maryland and except employees in the categories excluded in Paragraph 2 of this Executive Order.
2. The said grievance procedure shall not be applicable to the following categories of State employees:
 - (a) Persons appointed by the Governor or whose appointment requires gubernatorial approval;
 - (b) Deputy Attorneys General and Assistant Attorneys General, including counsel to the principal departments of the Executive Branch of the State Government;
 - (c) Chief Deputy Comptroller;
 - (d) Chief Deputy Treasurer;
 - (e) Persons who are subject to collective bargaining agreements containing other grievance procedures;
 - (f) Persons who are subject to contracts, rules, or regulations concerning teacher tenure, including employees on a faculty staff;
 - (g) Part-time employees, student employees, and patients and inmates in State institutions;
 - (h) Persons in unclassified positions at the various State Colleges which are comparable to positions on the Associative Staff of the University of Maryland, provided that the Board of Trustees of the State Colleges undertakes a review of such positions
