EXECUTIVE ORDER OF JULY 11, 1974

ENERGY CRISIS - GASOLINE ALLOCATION RECISSION

WHEREAS, I, MARVIN MANDEL, Governor of the State of Maryland, did on November 14, 1973, proclaim that a state of emergency existed within the area constituting the entire State of Maryland by reason of an acute shortage in usable energy resources; and

WHEREAS, I further proclaimed that, in accordance with the procedures contained in Article 41, Section 15B of the Annotated Code of Maryland, as amended by Chapter 1 of the Acts of 1973, Second Special Session, I would promulgate reasonable Orders, Rules and Regulations, as I deem necessary, to protect the public health, safety and welfare and to bring the emergency situation under control; and

WHEREAS, Pursuant to the aforesaid proclamations, on February 6, 1974, I issued an Order providing for an odd-even plan of gasoline allocation for certain motor vehicles, which order was amended by subsequent Orders on February 11, 1974, and February 13, 1974; and

WHEREAS, After consultation with the State Energy Policy Office and other responsible officials, I am advised that by reason of increased allocations of motor gasoline to Maryland and the effect of conservation measures, such a gasoline allocation plan is no longer necessary at this time;

NOW, THEREFORE, EFFECTIVE AS OF 12:01 A.M. FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1974. THE SAID ORDER OF FEBRUARY 6, 1974, AS SUBSEQUENTLY AMENDED ON FEBRUARY 11, 1974, AND FEBRUARY 13, 1974, BE AND IT IS HEREBY RESCINDED.
