AREA OBITUARIES

George Alexander Miles

Services for George Alexander Miles (George Gee Buck) were held Monday, May 7 at the New Antioch Baptist Church, 1400 North Eden St.

Rev. Orlando A. Wilson officiated the services for the 39 year veteran Baltimore City Housing Authority Maintenance Supervisor.

George Alexander Miles was the son of the late Alexander and Cora Blanton Miles. He was born in Baltimore on September 27, 1930 and was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools. After graduation he served in the United States Army.

George was married to the late Virginia Jackson for 32 years and from this union six children were born.

Among his family members friends and co-workers George Miles was affectionately known as "George Gee Buck."

George Gee Buck is survived by sons and daughters, Tony A. Miles, Elaine Barber, George Jackson, Cora Miles, Virginia Miles, Eric Miles also a son-in-law, daughter-in-law, nineteen grandchildren and three great - grandchildren.

He is also survived by his devoted brothers and sisters, Anna Hayes, Roosevelt Miles, Francell Miles, Clarence Miles and Pearline Dukes and a host of aunts, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

He is survived by a special friend Mrs. Grace Holly.

Mrs. Lessie L. H. Graves

Mrs. Lessie Louise H. Graves, retired librarian, died April 26 as result of injuries sustained in a fire at her home, 2029 Braddish Ave.

Mrs. Graves, who was professor of Library Science in the Graduate School at North Carolina Central University in Durham, was a charter member of the National Museum of Women in Arts.

She was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Charles Harper and the widow of Dr. Frederick D. Graves.

Survivors include two sons, Mr. Lawrence Graves, Milwaukee, Wisconsin and Mr. Lloyd Graves, of Atlanta, Georgia; two brothers, Mr. Charles S. Harper and Mr. A. Priestly Harper, both of Baltimore and one grandson.

The family suggested memorial contributions to the Louise H. Graves Library Fund, North Carolina Central University, Durham, NC 27707.

Joseph B. Locklear

Services for Joseph Baskerville Locklear, who retired after more than 32 years of postal and military service, were held on Tuesday, May 1 at Faith Baptist Church.

Mr. Locklear died on April 26, four days before his 74th birthday, at Liberty Medical Center. He had suffered a massive stroke two weeks earlier.

Joe, as he was called, was born in Baltimore and attended public schools. He married Margaret V. Lindsay, and from their union two daughters were born, Josephine L. Alston, and Lillian L. Alston.

He was a member of the Maryland National Guard, 231st Truck Battalion, an all Black unit, which was the only Guard unit in Maryland to be called to active duty during the Korean Conflict. He also served in the Marine Corps, and the Army Reserves, where he received an appointment to Chief Warrant Officer Four on December 2, 1969

He is survived by his wife Margaret, of 54 years. He was a very devoted father and grandfather and always spoke with pride of his daughters, sons-in-law, and their families.

Mrs. Geraldine Gatewood

Graveside services for Mrs. Geraldine Catherine Hughes Gatewood were held April 21 at Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mrs. Gatewood resided in Boston for over 40 years with her husband, Charles Gatewood, the first Black supervisor in the Post Office. She later moved to New York with her brother, Dr. Bernard Hughes, Jr. and her sister-in-law, Catherine "Kitty" Coleman Hughes. Later, they moved to Philadelphia.

Fondly known as "Gerry," Mrs. Gatewood was born in Baltimore, educated in Washington, DC and attended Cheyney College.

One of the founders of Rest Haven, first Black Nursing Home, she was an active member of the Smart Set, Cosmopolitan and a life time member of the NAACP.

Mrs. Gatewood is survived by her two brothers, Dr. S. Bernard Hughes, Jr., Philadelphia and Dr. Donald W. O. Hughes, Baltimore; a sister, Mrs. Ann McAllister-Hughes.

CARD OF THANKS

The family of the late Merita Kelson Stokes wishes to thank its relatives and friends for support and kindnesses extended during her long illness, in her passing and for those who participated in the final rites of interment at Arbutus Memorial Park on May 24, 1990. Special thanks to Father Michael Curry, rector of St. James' Episcopal Church who officiated.

May God bless each of you.

IN MEMORIAM

BROOKS — In memory of our loved one, ELMER BAXTER BROOKS, who departed this life on May 27, 1988:

Time cannot steal the treasures,
That we carry in our hearts;
Nor ever dim the shining thoughts,
Our cherished past imparts;
And memories of the ones we've loved,
Still cast their gentle glow;
To grace our days and light our path,
Wherever we may go.
