A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you." Ephesians 4:32

My friend, you are special in the eyes of the Lord. The Bible says that you are the very apple of His eye. Oh, how He loves you.

A song writer said, When I think of the goodness of Jesus and what's He's done for me, my soul cries hallelujah, I thank God for saving me!

Are you happy to know the Saviour in the pardon of your sins today?

Are you happy that God so loved the world, that He loved you so much, that He gave His only begotten Son to die on Calvary's cross just to save a wretch like you and me?

I don't know about you, but I'm gonna praise the name of our God . . . for He has done great things for me.

I shall continually delight myself in the Lord, and on His law will I meditate day and night.

When God saved us, He gave us a brand new life . . . He gave us a brand new heart . . . He gave us a brand new attitude.

Somebody said, The things I used to do, I don't do any more . . . the places I used to go, I don't go any more.

The Bible says, If any man be in Christ, he is a new creation; old things are passed away, behold, all things are become new.

Before we got saved . . . before we asked God to forgive us of all of our sins and personally invited Jesus to come into our heart, we were seated on the throne of our heart . . . we were calling the shots for our life . . . we were moved by the things in the fleshly realm.

But now that we belong to the Kingdom of God . . . now that we have been translated out of the kingdom of darkness and into the Kingdom of the Son of the living God, we have a brand new outlook on life.

My friend, it is only as you continually read God's Word that you will know His requirements of His dear children.

It is only as you read the Word of God that you will know the blessed hope that we have in Christ Jesus.

And the Bible says that we ought to be kind to one another. That means we ought to do nice things for one another . . . Not because we are expecting something in return, but just because we want to be a blessing to somebody else.

My friend, kindness may be expressed in a kind word. More times than not we speak when we should be silent and we are silent when we should speak.

When is the last time that you said something nice to somebody that really came from your heart?

When you hear how the Lord is really blessing somebody else, wouldn't it be nice to tell them how happy you are for them, and really mean it? It doesn't cost

Smile Orchids

A bunch of smile orchids to Mrs. Elizabeth Hill, the Lakewood Ave. good neighbor who has plenty of sunshine in her voice. Many admire her at Southern Baptist Church, where she sings on the choir and is gospel soloist.

Cuff note: Good news in the family this week - grandson, Lennox, (Lenny) L. Brown, 17, is among graduates at Polytechnic, has scholarship to study computer engineering at Lowell University, in Lowell, Mass. this fall. Proud parents are Brenda Hill Russell and Robert Russell.

Orchids to Howard W. Lewis. He's the personable Clifton Ave. resident who attends Providence Baptist Church and says he enjoys doing volunteer work there.

Friendly young man nice to know is Maurice L. Horsey II, the program director at the Druid Hill YMCA Family Branch.

Cuff note: When you greet Mr. Horsey he's likely to hand you his calling card. On the reverse side this clever note: "This card (guest pass), when signed entitles the holder to a free visit to the Druid Hill YMCA."

Lots of orchids to young Barnettier (Bonnie) Smith, 17, who gets a degree in journalism on June 16 from Northeastern University in Boston.

Cuff note: Proud parents are Patricia D. Smith, the AT and T account exec in Las Vegas, and Barnet Smith, the Baltimore beautician and National Guard officer.

More proud kin: Grandparents, Robert E. and Lavinia Dorsey, (he's the retired P.O. super recovering from surgery), of Edmondson Ave., and great grandmother, Mrs. Rebecca Massenberry, and great aunt, Mrs. Alberta D. Briggs.

More orchids to another Mr. Dorsey who has plenty of sunshine in his voice — Robert Walker Dorsey, the Woodlawn resident who enjoys serving as deacon at Ebenezer Baptist Church, 23rd and Guilford, where his wife, Lavinia, is a deaconess.

Cuff note: Mr. and Mrs. Dorsey recently marked their 40th wedding anniversary. Both are Morgan U. grads. They have four children and four grands. Daughter, Linda Walker, and son, Keith, are Baltimore County employees' son, Kevin, is a government engineer; and daughter, Cynthia, is Seaman 2/c at the Norfolk Naval Base.

Oddity: Isn't it odd, our inquiries about one Dorsey family brought us in touch with two families where mom and dad have the same names - Robert and Lavinia!

Editor's note — Did someone's smile make your day? Tell us the name and let this column salute them. Write, Smiles, If You Ask Me, Baltimore Afro-American, 628 N. Eutaw St., Baltimore, Md., 21201, and smile, please.

Please tell us about graduates in your family - high school and college grads. Let us salute them, too.

On The Move

Young Baltimorean on the move: Gina E. Ross, the New York advertising exec, returned to her hometown a Monday ago to give some pertinent tips on advertising.

She is vice president/account supervisor of the Caroline Jones Advertising, Inc. in the Big City.

Goucher College's Communications Department invited Miss Ross to discuss the role and process of advertising in American Society today.

Those who were there are still talking about the professional manner in which she discussed the advertising process and answered queries from the audience . . . made you proud.

Those who grew up with Gina and remembered her as a student at Seton High, then later Howard U., Georgetown and UCLA and before that as a camper at the YMCA's Camp King's Landing will recall she demonstrated leadership skills then.

Cuff note: The Ross lecture was under the auspices of the Ambassador Program of the Advertising Educational Foundation.

More cuff: Another reason for celebration in the Ross family: — Gina is the daughter of William and Margo Ross, both well - known W. Lanvale St. good neighbors.

She is retired from C and P Telephone.

Mr. Ross was honored June 2 at Chanel Inn in DC, where co-workers praised his devoted service as field investigator with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

Her dad's co-workers had an opportunity to hear Gina, too. She was among speakers at his testimonial — a real thrill.

Baltimore educator - Mrs. Lillie Myers, provided outstanding musical tributes - solos like "Somewhere Over The Rainbow."

EEOC's Baltimore District Deputy Director, Haywood Perry, and William Bradley, DC EEOC field director wre among others hailing the honoree.

Also, Dr. Edgar Draper, retired president of Manhattan Community College, and a Baltimore native.

More cuff: Mr. Ross is a lifetime member of Sharp St. Memorial United Methodist Church. There were tributes from the church and from the United Methodist Church Foundation, Baltimore Annual Conference on which he has served.

Bill Ross tells this column he is not sitting down - plans to keep busy in retirement. Good luck to him.

About People

Love note: - Wedding bells ring this Saturday (June 9) in the U.S. Naval Academy chapel for lovely Stacey Evette Brown and Lt. J/G James Kent Owens.

The bride - to be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Brown, (Hedy) of Annapolis, is a graduate of Friends School here in Baltimore and Tufts University in Boston. She is a civil engineer with the U.S. Army in San Francisco.

The bridegroom - to - be is the son of Mrs. Orean Owens of Huntsville, Ala. and a 1988 graduate of the U.S. Naval Academy.

Move love: Surprise wedding ceremony on Wednesday evening united Baltimore native Lynne Anderson and Steven Harrison, who jetted in from Los Angeles and proposed.

Ceremony was at the Dorchester Rd. home of the bride's mom, Palestine Anderson. Father Michael Curry, St. James P.E. where the Andersons belong, and Rev. Marvis May, Macedonia Baptist, officiated. (Bride's father, the late Earl Anderson, was deacon at Macedonia when he died in February).

Cuff note: The bride is a social work administrator who gave up her post in LA after her dad's death, is settled here now. Her bridegroom is a probation officer who will be moving here, too.

More People

Picnic note: They did it again on Saturday. Members of The Men, hosted their 11th annual picnic.

The weatherman cooperated and the spacious lawn of the Rolling Rd. abode of the Charles Paynes (Bea), was aglow with people — enjoying chatter, card games and listening to the variety of music provided by member, William Griggs and wife Rebecca. (His well - organized tapes included the oldies as well as the latest in tunes and guests enjoyed them.

In addition to Mr. Griggs and Mr. Payne who is president and founder of the club, other members are, Raymond Holley, Mac Chamberlain, Harrison Fuller, Arthur Peterson, David Wright, Errol Taylor, William Henderson and Mack Williams.

Cuff note: The club members treated guests to catered lunch and dinner served by Gorsuch.

On the mend: Get - well cards to Mrs. Priscilla Lansey, the Mosher St. good neighbor who is known for her smile and good nature.

She suffered painful injuries when she fell while leaving funeral services for Dr. Bernard Harris Jr., at Centennial Methodist Church on Friday.

Mrs. Lansey is active in a number of civic and community groups including the DuBois Circle and the We Wives Club.

Fellow We Wife, Mrs. Margery Prout, who has been ailing, reports she's feeling much better.

Attorney Charles Howard, who was rushed to Liberty Medical last week for emergency surgery, is much improved.

Cheer to Deaton Hospital for Mrs. Grace Hunt, Charles Saunders and Newman Reavis. To Meridian Multi Center for Dr. Frederick Adams.

—A Word of Hope

anything to say a nice word to someone.

My friends, let's be kind to one another. Let's ask God to show us ways that we can express the God kind of love for others by doing a thoughtful deed. The Bible says if someone asks us to go one mile with them, we are to go two.

That means that we are expected to go even beyond the expectations of others in our sacrificial giving . . . in our outpouring of love upon them.

In fact, you don't have to wait until somebody asks you to do something for them, but you can go ahead and do it before they even think of asking the favor of you.

I guarantee you, not only will the person be blessed by your love and concern, but you will be blessed as well . . . Just to know that someone else is blessed ought to bless your heart.

My friend, we are to be tenderhearted, forgiving one another. Can you think of anyone whom you have not forgiven? If so, ask God through the power of His Holy Spirit to help you to release that person right now.

Try to see him or her through the eyes of the loving Saviour, Jesus. Jesus loves the sinner, but He hates sin and all unrighteousness.

We too must love those who despitefully use us and misuse us, but hate the sin that is in their life. Let us remember that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us . . .

. He died that we might have the right to the tree of life . . . he died that we might have forgiveness of our sins . . . that we might have everlasting life. We didn't deserve it, but God did something nice for us.

And because Jesus now lives on the inside, we can allow Him to live His life through us.

We can be channels of His love and of His tender mercies, showing love and compassion for those whom we encounter on a day to day basis . . .

We can be vessels of honor and righteousness — not doing evil for evil, but overcoming evil with good . . . blessing those who curse us . . . turning the other cheek . . . smiling instead of frowning . . . blessing others with our cheer and good - tidings . . . letting them experience the love of God radiating through us.

Somebody said, If I could but help somebody along the way, my living shall not have been in vain. God wants to use you to make the difference. . . .

A Word of Hope may be heard every Monday through Friday at 5 p.m. on WASA Radio 1330 AM.
