AREA OBITUARIES

Mr. Clifton W. Sherrard

Mass of Resurrection for Mr. Clifton Walter Sherrard was held Wednesday, June 6, 12 noon, at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church.

An avid fan and supporter of the arts, Mr. Sherrard studied under the late Mr. Sheldon B. Hoskins, whom he always gave credit for his deep love for the theatre. His special hobby was music. He enjoyed all types of music from jazz to classical.

For a number of years, he worked as a field representative for Metro, Paramount and Twentieth Century Fox Pictures. He was the first Black in the East to serve in that capacity.

The son of the late John E. and Ida Vandiver Sherrard, he was born in Anderson, SC on June 15, 1915. Mr. Sherrard came to Baltimore at the age of 12, but he returned to South Carolina each school year where he received his early and formal education.

In 1953, he met and married Camilla White Monsigue. Although they had no children of their own, they had several godchildren, whom they motivated and "gave a push."

After working for the Baltimore City Department of Education for several years, he retired in 1977 from the Department of Instruction and Curriculum Mangement. After retirement, Mr. Sherrard worked with several neighborhood projects in Baltimore and Columbia Beach.

In earlier years, Mr. Sherrard was an active member of New Psalmist Baptist Church. In his later life, he became a member of St. Peter Claver Catholic Church.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by one sister, Mrs. Fannie Gambrell.

Interment in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

Mrs. Beatrice Jones

Funeral services for Mrs. Beatrice Jones were held Friday, May 11 at Canaan Missionary Baptist Church, 1108 E. Preston St.

Mrs. Jones, who was 70, and lived on East 20th St. died Monday, May 7 at St. Joseph's Hospital, after a lengthy illness.

She was married to Mr. Alexander Pelock Jones in 1939, who died in 1955.

The youngest daughter of the late Jerry and Bertha Grant, she was born in Florence, SC. In 1952, Mrs. Jones moved to Baltimore and was united with People's Baptist Church, where she served for over 25 years.

Survivors include two daughters, Mesdames Annie Grace Carlisle, Columbus, GA and Leola Dorsey, Baltimore; five grandchildren; four great grandchildren and a devoted cousin who was like her son, Sammie Ford.

Interment in Baltimore National Cemetery.

William clark

Final rites for Mr. William Clark were held Friday, May 11 at Highway Christian Church, 1100 East Homewood Ave. Mr. Clark died May 7 after a short illness. He was 40.

He received his education in the Baltimore public schools, attending Lombard Junior High and graduating from Baltimore City College.

Mr. Clark was employed with Baltimore City. At an early age, he attended Highway Christian Church and sang on the junior choir. He made numerous friends with his out-going personality and friendly sense of humor.

Survivors include his mother, Mrs. Gertrude C. Faison; grandmother, Mrs. Isabelle Nicholson; one son, William Clark, Jr.; two daughters, Wanda and Teasha Clark; four brothers, Alexander, Elvin, Curtis and Paul Clark; three sisters, Cynthia, Corrine and Donethia; and a devoted friend, Ann.

Interment in Voschell Memorial Gardens.

Mrs. Julia E. Woodland

Mass of Ressurection for Mrs. Julia Esther Woodland was held Saturday, May 12 at St. Peter Claver Church, 1546 N. Fremont Ave.

Mrs. Woodland, 75, died at Liberty Medical Center after a brief illness.

She received a Catholic School education and was a member of St. Peter Claver until her death. Her employment included Greene's Hat Shop in the late 1930's; S & N Katz Jewelers in the 1940's Leon Levi's and Neild's Cleaners.

A Baltimorean, Mrs. Woodland was the daughter of the late Carrie Marlowe and Charles Frazier.

Her husband, Mr. Joseph L. Woodland, died in 1947.

She is survived by two nieces, Mrs. Mary King and Mrs. Harriett Brown and one great niece, Ms. Pamela Day.

Interment in Garden of Eternal Hope, Carroll County.

Ms. Florence M. Morse

Funeral services for Ms. Florence Matilda Morse were held Tuesday, May 15. Ms. Morse died May 10 after a lengthy illness. She was 69.

She was educated at Robert Moton School in Westminster, where she was born and was a member of Bethel AME Church. A dedicated worker for 35 years at Western Maryland College in Westminster, students thought of her as a mom away from home. Her friends and co-workers thought of her as a dependable, respectful and loyal friend.

Ms. Morse was a grand-mom to everyone she met and will always be remembered for her great baking skills.

Survivors include five daughters, Mesdames Mary

J. Gaither, Upper Marlboro; Martha A. Costley, Baltimore; Barbara I. Pearson, Valencia, CA, Mary E. Costley and Melva McMillan of Baltimore; four sons, Alfred L., William D., Leonard L. Costley and William A. Brown; two sisters, Mrs. Hannah E. Sellers and Mrs. Catherine Allen, both of Westminster; 34 grandchildren; 12 great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild.

Interment in Woodlawn Cemetery.

In addition to his wife, other survivors include daughter, Mrs. Terri L. Richardson; nine grandchildren; 18 great-grandchildren; five great-great grandchildren; three sisters, Mesdames Marian F. Clayton, Philadelphia, PA.; Dorothy V. Brooks and Florine Cosme, both of Coleman's Corner, Kent County, MD.

Mr. Alvin P. Hall

Final rites for Mr. Alvin Plumber Hall were held Friday, May 11 at Asbury United Methodist Church, Jessup. Mr. Hall died May 6 at Baltimore County General Hospital. He was 80.

Mr. Hall received his formal education at the old Guilford Elementary School. At an early age, he attended Sunday School at Asbury United Methodist Church and later reaffirmed his faith at Asbury in October, 1989.

On November 10, 1940, he was married to Ms. Effie M. Hall and they were parents of four children.

At age 17, he began working for Potts and Callahan Contractors. He worked as an operating engineer with Potts and Callahan for 48 years. His employment was interrupted from Nov. 12, 1942 until Nov. 3, 1945 while he served the Army of the U.S. Mr. Hall served with the 811th Engineers Aviation Battalion as a construction machine operator in the Southwest Pacific. While in service, he received medals for good conduct and the Battle Star.

His greatest loves were his family, work and the outdoors. Hunting, fishing, and visiting others occupied his recreational time early in his life, and then later, his grandchildren filled most of his time. The last four years of his life were dedicated to raising his grandson.

In addition to his wife, other survivors include daughter, Ms. Sylvia Candy Hall; three grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Marjorie Thomas and one brother, Mr. Gene Hall.

Interment in Arbutus Memorial Park.

Mr. Lawrence Dorsey

Final services for Mr. Lawrence Dorsey were held Monday, May 14 at Berea Temple Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 1901 Madison Ave.

Mr. Dorsey died May 9 after a short illness. He was 89.

He received his education in Coleman's Corner, Worton, MD and later moved to Baltimore where he worked in masonry and other construction jobs.

On September 29, 1949, he married Ms. Edna Roberts Dorsey and was then baptized into the Seventh Day Adventist. He was a faithful member of Berea until his death.

Mr. Dorsey served as president of the Gospel Choir, formerly known as the Berean Choir. He was also a member of the Usher Board and he and his wife were the custodians of Baltimore Junior Academy and Berea Temple for five years.

IN MEMORIAM

BROOKS — In memory of our loved one, DR. ELMER BAXTER BROOKS, who departed this life on May 27, 1988:

Time cannot steal the treasures,
That we carry in our hearts;
Nor ever dim the shining thoughts,
Our cherished past imparts;
And memories of the ones we've loved,
Still cast their gentle glow;
To grace our days and light our path,
Wherever we may go.
