OBITUARIES

Daniel P. Henson, Jr.

Services for Daniel P. Henson, Jr. were held January 10, at St. Edward Roman Catholic Church.

Daniel P. Henson, Jr., was born January 9, 1920 in Baltimore to Daniel P. Henson, Sr. and Irene Henson.

He graduated from Douglass High School and worked for the Department of Defense as a clerk. Later, he was one of the first blacks hired as an assembly line worker at Western Electric.

He served in WWII with the 4341 Quartermaster Service Company, attached to General Patton's Corps during the battle of France

Upon military discharge he returned to Western Electric and later in the early 1950's, Mr. Henson began a nearly 30-year career with the U.S. Post Office, retiring in 1980.

Mr. Henson was also a professional artist and photographer. His photos," The Henson Kids—First Day of School," were a standard feature of the AFRO-AMERICAN Newspaper for years.

Henson was devoted to his wife, the former Florence Newton, who died in 1978. Six children were born of their union.

Mr. Henson leaves to mourn; one daughter, Florence Joy Owens; five sons, Daniel P., III, Edward D., Allen J., Eric C., and Brian W.;

One brother, David; a cousin, Cornelia Cummings, eight grandchildren, three great grandchildren, one son-in-law, four daughters-in-law, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Joseph Graham

Services for former Baltimore City Police Officer, Joseph Graham, took place at 12:30 p.m., Wednesday, January 11, at Emmanuel Christian Community Church.

Joseph Graham was born in Danville, Virginia on December 3, 1923. He entered the Armed Forces in 1942. After his discharge in 1945, he entered and attended and graduated from Cortez Peters Business School. He later enlisted in the Reserves and was called to active duty in August 1950.

Upon his discharge, Mr. Graham joined the Baltimore City Police Department and worked for the department until he went on special disability in 1971. He received five commendations for bravery.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Minnie Graham; wife, Marion Graham; two sons, Joseph, Jr. and Theodore Graham;

Four daughters, Towanda Stovall, Jeanette Williams, Katrina Graham and Sharlene Fair; one sister Dorothy Turnage;

Two brothers, William and Hurbert Graham; four grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

—A Word of Hope

them. The Lord is our protector by day and by night. He shields us from the fiery darts of the enemy, which is Satan . . . The Lord is our help in ages past and our hope in years to come. He will not suffer our foot to stumble.

When the wicked, even our enemies, come upon us to eat up our flesh . . . to do us in . . . to utterly destroy us . . . they will stumble and fall. For the Lord God of Jacob is our refuge and strength.

The Bible says the name of the Lord is a strong tower; the righteous runneth into it and is safe.

Jesus is the good shepherd. He leads us in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Therefore, I can say with David, Yeah . . . though I walk through the vallev of the shadow of death; I will fear no evil. For the Lord is with me. He has promised never to leave us nor forsake us. So where He leads me, I will follow. Have you decided to follow Jesus?

And the Bible says that Jesus layed down His life for His sheep. My friend, greater love than this has no man, that He would lay down His life for a friend.

Beloved, Jesus died that we might have life. . . He was wounded that we might be healed . . . He bled that our lives might be mended . . . He suffered affliction that we might walk in victory. The Bible says He arose with all power in his hands. He is alive for evermore! My friend, is Jesus living in your heart?

Invite Him to come into your heart. God wants to work a miracle in your life. . . .

people like Mrs.McLeod's united effort to bring as many churches as possible together for a special worship service to give God thanks for bringing them through another year and to reaffirm their commitment . . .for more unity in the body of Christ.

Even though the place setting has changed, (from the church to LaFontaine Blue) the vision has not.

Mrs. McLeod has been appointed for 14 years out of the 28 years that the Convention has held it's prayer breakfast, as minister of music or co-minister of music.

Mrs. Celia McLeod is the wife of Charles McLeod, Sr. Last September, the happy couple celebrated their 51st wedding anniversary. They have four children, Charles McLeod, Jr., Evelyn McLeod, Maudestine Godsey, and Bettye McLeod.

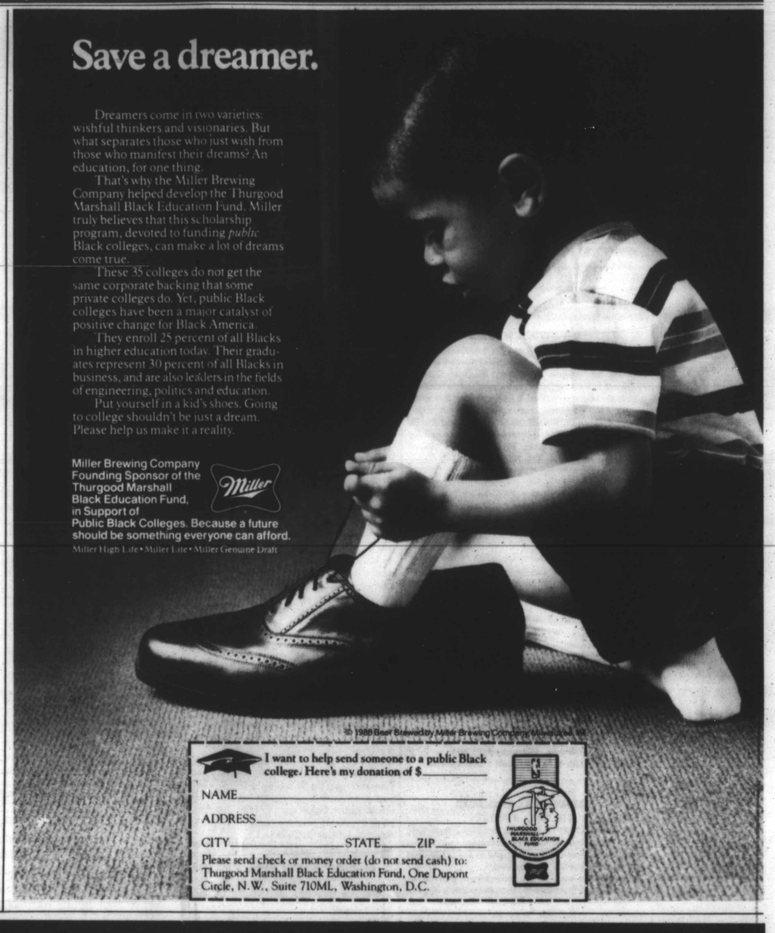
Bettye McLeod is the child who was so taken with her mother's musical abilities that she is following in her mother's footsteps.

Bettye directs Faith Baptist's woman chorus and is the band director for West Baltimore Middle School.

Bettye shared with me how proud and pleased that she is to have two such wonderful christian parents, and is grateful for all the help and encouragement she has received from her parents.

Mrs. McLeod's favorite scripture is found in I Cor. 15:58, "Therefore, my brethren, be ye steadfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the LORD; forasmuch as ye know that thy labour is not in vain." Praise God from whom all blessings flow!

Save a dreamer.



Dreamers come in two varieties: wishful thinkers and visionaries. But what separates those who just wish from those who manifest their dreams? An education, for one thing.

That's why the Miller Brewing Company helped develop the Thurgood Marshall Black Education Fund. Miller truly believes that this scholarship program, devoted to funding public Black colleges, can make a lot of dreams come true.

These 35 colleges do not get the same corporate backing that some private colleges do. Yet, public Black colleges have been a major catalyst of positive change for Black America.

They enroll 25 percent of all Blacks in higher education today. Their graduates represent 30 percent of all Blacks in business, and are also leaders in the fields of engineering, politics and education.

Put yourself in a kid's shoes. Going to college shouldn't be just a dream. Please help us make it a reality.
