AREA OBITUARIES

Nancy M. Evans-McCrorey

Funeral services were performed for Nancy M. Evans-McCrorey on December 1, at the Masonic Temple, 1307 Eutaw Place.

Born to the late George and Anna Evans on January 4, 1903, in Friendship, Maryland, Mrs. McCrorey spent her childhood days throughout Anne Arundel and Calvert Counties.

Mrs. McCrorey was a religious and straight forward person who never took a short-cut in life. "Please do it right or don't do it at all," was her reply to a those with a task to perform.

Mrs. McCrorey died peacefully at Maryland General Hospital at the age of eighty-five.

She leaves to mourn: a daughter, Dorothy Wills (Mickie); stepchildren, Abbie Smith, Delores Epps, Margaret Nicholson, Doretha Skinner and Nancy M. Wallace; one brother Henry Evans; three sisters, Georgiana Peterson of Annapolis, Maryland, Ida Allen of Washington D.C. and Ada Franklin of Dunkirk, Maryland; one son-in-law, Leonard Wills; one brother-in-law, Howard Allen; one grandson, Leonard Jr.; other nephews and nieces and a host of other relatives and friends.

Willie Redd, Jr.

Funeral services were performed for Willie Redd, Jr. on December 2.

Mr. Redd, born in 1924, the son of Mattie and Willie Redd, Sr. in Meherrin, Va., died on the morning of November 28.

A student at Virginia's Dunbar High School, Mr. Redd was baptized at Forest Baptist Church. Mr. Redd later moved to Baltimore where he joined Zion Baptist Church.

Mr. Redd leaves to mourn: a loving wife, Lucille S. Reed; two sisters, Mittie Redd and Lucille F. Redd; two nieces, Lucille H. Redd and Thelma Redd; one aunt Ida Mae Redd; three sisters-in-law Mary Thomas, Peaches McCormick and Lillie Grant; three brothers-in-law, Woodrow Thomas, Al McCormick and Garland Hurt; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, kind neighbors and friends.

Horace Miller, III

Funeral services were performed for Horace Miller, III on December 2, at March Funeral Homes-East at 12 noon. Born in 1963 Horace Miller, III died late last November. The son of Horace Miller, Jr. and Alesia Parker, the child attended Children's First Center from the age of three until he was five.

Horace III loved sports, including his favorites baseball, basketball and football.

Horace leaves to cherish his memory: His parents; two brothers, Curtis Deal and DeAndre Miller; one grandmother, Dorothy Miller; one great grandmother, Bernice Johnson; two uncles, seven aunts, several great aunts, uncles, cousins and many, many playmates.
