Samuel B. Newton

Funeral services were held on January 7, for Samuel B. Newton at the Saint John Baptist Catholic Church. Burial rites were held in his hometown of Many, Louisiana. At the time of his death he was 67 years old and had spent several months in treatment at a Shreveport Louisiana hospital.

Samuel Newton was born in Many, Louisiana and attended Southern University in Baton Rouge before enlisting in the United States Army during World War II, where he served in the South Pacific theater.

Samuel B. Newton is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Evelyn L. Bush and Mrs. Goldie L. Parsons; one brother, Donald L. Newton as well as fourteen nieces and nephews.

must have a definite life enriching purpose.

He is concerned that so much of the church music today leans away from the Ministry and more towards the show and entertainment.

He feels the church music should minister to the souls of the people and not for their entertainment.

"There should be a difference in the sound of music in the church and the sound of music in the streets," says Stills.

It concerns him that it is hard to tell the difference "except occasionally you'll hear some words that may sound as though they are sacred."

Stills feels, we have failed to realize that it was the hymns that kept our people in their dark hours. It was the hymns that gave our people the strength and courage to go through.

It was the hymns that kept us strong as a people and kept us moving forward in love.

The hymns were songs with words that could be understood clearly and thought on.

Songs that we were able to accept and find the comfort of God through, are what Stills calls "our heritage songs." He remembers how it used to be in our communities when every man was his brother. We had feelings for one another.

"There was no hunger, there was no housing problems and people were not on drugs," not like today.

Stills feels the hymns made people more mindful of each other and they acted better because the spirit of love was upon them.

He feels the emotionalism of today's music is more for hype than worship.

"I am afraid the next generation of kids are not going to know any of our wonderful traits," states Stills." We want our children to have a strong sense of love and brotherhood so that our children would not be lost.

Because of his strong feelings, Stills says, "I have been very tenacious about staying with traditional music. The true music of the black community are the spirituals which we are getting away from. That is the music of our heritage."

He praised Dr. King and stated, "what Dr. King did was not a show, this was the man, he was warm, kind, considerate, human, just really down to earth.

"Working close up, this is the way I remember him, that he was really just a great man. He is worthy of the accolades we place on him now. He is worthy of having his holiday."

In honor of Dr. King, Stills played some of the MLK's favorite songs in the concert. One of them was, "If I Can Help Somebody!"

DR. STILLS in performance as he adjusts the console during his concert presentation. Spirituals form the basic music he chooses to program, to help insure they will not be forgotten in history.

—A Word Of Hope

death, and the grave.

Because He rose, I can rise above depression and despair

Because He rose, I can rise above anxiety and heartache

Because He rose, I can rise above guilt and shame . . .

Because He rose, I can rise above jealousy and strife . . .

Because He rose, I don't have to walk around with my head down and my attention on my circumstance. I want to know Christ and the power of the resurrection.

Because of my resurrection on Christ Jesus, I have power over bad habits . . . I have power over circumstances that seek to destroy me.

No weapon formed against me shall prosper, and every tongue that raises itself against me, I shall condemn it. I have resurrection power! God has given us power over the enemy, which is Satan.

The Bible says, "And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name they shall cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues. They shall tread upon serpents and scorpions; and if they drink any deadly thing it will not hurt them: they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover."

God wants you to walk in His power. Are you walking in the resurrecting power of Christ Jesus?

IN MEMORIAM

In memory of JAMES E. BRISCOE, who passed away January 25, 1978:
We walked together,
you and I, in sorrow and in joy,
We shared our pains and happiness with love, without alloy,
And death shall never end our love
For thru the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky —
For all eternity!
Your loving wife,
MRS. DELORES BRISCOE

STEPNEY — In loving memory of our dear mother, ESTELLA GIPSON STEPNEY, who passed away January 31, 1985:
No one knows how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pain we have suffered since we lost you,
Life has never been the same,
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true.
There is not a day dear mother, that we do not think of you.
