Turning Point Outreach Program:

Helping the lonely, misunderstood

By Evan. Theresa Mercer
AFRO Church Correspondent

"I do" was a portion of the words promised in 1975 that joined the Ministries of Associate Pastor Carrol Carter and Counselor, Evangelist Patricia Peterson together.

Six months later the happy couple entered the field for their Missionary Ministry. Across the country they traveled from state to state and into Canada.

The Carter's Ministry was a part of tent meetings, revivals, camp meetings, hotel meetings, crusades, preaching, teaching and evangelizing.

Fore seven years, the couple worked in the field where they received practical traning for the work of God is now enabling them to do.

Pastor Carrol Carter and his wife Co-Pastor Patricia Carter have a strong teaching ministry in Columbia, Md., called Cornerstone Christian Worship Center, 7246 Craddle Rock Way.

Part of their teaching ministry is done one on one. The pastors Carter help people recognize their call by teaching them the hows of some fine point such as:

Make sure God has called you, Seek God for directions, Helping the Ministries to learn consistency so that they can learn to achieve their goals instead of missing the goals and becoming frustrated.

How in faith to launch out on the deep. There are ministries that are held up and just not moving yet, the Ministers know God has truly called them and the Pastors Carter work with them one on one.

The Pastors Carter find their ministry a joy and are pleased to be able to serve in counseling no matter what challenges are placed before them.

The Ministry consists of 12 different out-reaches.

Co-Pastor Patricia Carter is excited by Turning Point, a Ministry God has given her husband. Turning Point Administers to "homosexuals, lesbians, drug addicts, alcoholics.

The first thing the pastor shares is that no matter what the circumstances are," Jesus loves them and he is available to help them have a change in their lives if they desire so," says Evan. Carter.

"That's why it's called Turning Point, to help them come to a place where either they are going to make a decision to turn and live for the Lord completely, or they're going to remain where they are."

Rev. Carrol Carter and Co-Rev. Patricia Carter joint effort for the Lord.

They are helping people who come to them to find themselves in Christ.

Turning Point has been extremely successful in administering to homosexuals." We have seen the word of God literally transform the lives of people," declares Evan. Carter.

Turning Point has also been involved with counseling individuals who were in a relationship where one had AIDS and the other didn't.

Through the word of God and with wisdom of word, the ministers were able to ease the pain that comes from such situations.

The people involved received Christ and were spiritually lifted above their circumstances.

Many people are afraid of AIDS and so they separate themsleves from those who need special help.

In the Turning Point Out-Reach Ministry, a boldness is displayed. The Ministry is only interested in their getting their portion of God's work done.

There is no fear, they believe the Gospel of Jesus Christ makes the difference.

A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"Jesus answered, everyone who drinks this water will be thirsty again, but whoever drinks the water I give him will never thirst. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a spring of water welling up to eternal life."

My friend, are you thirsty today? Jesus says unto us, "I am the living water."

Water is a vital necessity to the survival of humankind; for we need to drink water in order for impurities to be properly flushed from our bloodstream. Water is a purifier.

We also drink water to quench the physical thirst on a hot summer's day. There's nothing like a cold glass of water when you are hot, and tired, and sweating. Water is a thirst quencher.

Well . . . in this life, we experience a thirst that is deeper than a physical thirst . . a thirst that cannot be quenched by drinking a cold glass of water . . . a thirst that cannot be quenched by any earthly substance. And so it is that that thirst is a spiritual thirst . . . a thirst that can only be quenched by the Lord Himself.

Jesus is able to satisfy our every need. Not only will He give us what we need, but the Bible says that if we diligently seek Him, He will give us the desires of our heart. Jesus will satisfy your life with every good thing.

Are you thirsting for peace today? The living Word of the Father says, My peace give I unto you . . . not peace as the world gives . . . but peace that passeth all understanding. Jesus wants to satisfy you with His peace. The Bible says, Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee; because he trusteth in thee.

Are you thirsting for love? The Bible says, God is love. To know God is to know love . . . to know love is to know God . . . and the only way that we can know God is through His only begotten Son, who is Jesus the Christ. And so it is that God's love for us was manifested in Jesus, who thought it not robbery to lay down His life, that I may have life forevermore. The love of God was demonstrated at Calvary when Jesus, as he bled on the cross . . . as they mocked Him and spat on Him, cried Father, forgive them; for they know not what they do. Jesus loves you.

He that drinks of the water that Jesus is offering, will never thirst again. A song writer said, can't nobody do me like Jesus. I'm so glad that I can put my trust in Jesus today. I'm so glad that I serve a God who is all sufficient . . . I'm so glad that I don't need any artificial joy . . . for I have Jesus joy . . . The joy that never runs out . . . the joy that's deep down on the inside . . . the joy that puts clapping in my hands and shouting on my feet . . . the joy that never runs out. This joy I have . . . the world didn't give it to me. The world didn't give it, and the world can't take it away.

I'm so glad that I have the living water on the inside. I'm so glad that it is a spring of water welling up to eternal life.

My friend, trust God to fill every empty place in your life . . . Trust Him to refresh you with living water . . . Oh, how He loves you. . . .
