Coppin State's Homecoming

At Coppin State's basketball homecoming, last week, it was a time for both joy and laughter. But only the men's team was smiling at games' end as they defeated Florida A & M 68-64.

For the women, despair was reflected more frequently than smiles, as Morgan State trounced the Lady Eagles 65-44.

More important than the games were the activities connected with homecoming and the friendships that were strengthen through basketball.

"Homecoming was fun," said Coppin sports information director Mike Preston. "We had enough things to do before and after the games to make everybody happy."

In the MEAC, the Coppin men are holding on to third place, while the women are next to last, two games ahead of Maryland Eastern Shore.

Lacrosse Finale

The Baltimore Thunder, attempting to stay in the hunt for a MILL Playoff spot, will battle the New England Blazers in the Thunder's home season finale, this Saturday, February 18 at 8:00 p.m. at the Baltimore arena.

Baltimore, currently in fourth place in the Major Indoor Lacrosse League standings, is hoping to spark their offense against the winless Blazers.

Tickets to the game are on sale and are available at all TicketCenter locations, including the Baltimore Arena box office or by phone at 481-6000 in metro Baltimore.

Ken Singleton Raises Money For SIDS

On Monday, February 20th, during the halftime of the Loyola-Towson State basketball game, former Baltimore Oriole great and WJZ-TV 13 sports commentator will shoot free-throws to raise money for the National Sudden Infant Death Syndrome Foundation.

For every basket that Singleton makes in a three minute period the National SIDS Foundation will collect on pledges made by the public.

If you are interested in making a pledge or would like more information, call (301) 459-3388.

Bullets to Honor Hayes, Unseld and Johnson in Baltimore

On February 24, when the Bullets battle the Knicks at the Baltimore Arena, former Bullets greats Elvin Hayes, Wes Unseld and the late Gus Johnson will be honored in a pregame ceremony. Three banners, similar to those hanging in the Capital Centre, will be unveiled at the Baltimore Arena to honor these players and the City of Baltimore for their contributions to the Bullets franchise.

In addition to this celebration, a reunion has been planned for all former Bullets players. The Bullets alumni will include Walt Bellamy, Archie Clark, Phil Chenier and Kevin Porter.

Call the Baltimore Arena for ticket information.

Community Track

The Department of Recreation and Parks' Track and Field Development Program invites the public to an Indoor Track Championship Meet, Monday and Tuesday, February 27th and 28th at the Fifth Regiment Armory at Howard and Preston Streets.

On Monday, the meet will be for ages 7-14 only. On Tuesday, the meet will include ages 15-60 and over. On both days, the first race will begin at 5:00 p.m.

For ages 7-18, a $2.00 fee is charged. It is $3.00 for ages 19-60 and over.

Call 396-2936/37, for more information.
