

(f) A distributor who intends not to renew a marketing agreement shall give notice of his intent to the retail service station dealer at least 90 days before the expiration of the term of the marketing agreement, whether or not the marketing agreement contains a provision for automatic renewal or, by its terms, expires at a fixed time. Failure to give notice constitutes a renewal of the marketing agreement for a term of one year from its stated expiration date. This notice requirement supersedes the notice provisions of [Article--Real Property, § 8-402 (b)] SECTION 8-402(B) OF THE REAL PROPERTY ARTICLE, Annotated Code of Maryland, as well as any notice provision set forth in the marketing agreement.

(c) (2) The rates permitted by this subsection may be charged only if:

(vi) The loan is not secured by a note, promise to pay, or security instrument which does not [state;] STATE:

(A) The principal amount of the loan;

(B) A schedule of payments or a description of the schedule; and

(C) The agreed amount or rate of interest, charges, and fees to be charged;

12-506.

(g) Regardless of the date of actual posting of a payment to an account, the payment shall be credited to the customer's account as of the date the payment is received by the creditor, and no finance charge, late payment charge, or other charge shall be imposed with respect to the amount of the payment which is properly received by the creditor on or before the time indicated by the creditor as necessary to avoid imposition thereof, provided that:

(3) If the creditor accepts payment at locations other than those specified under paragraph (g) (2) (ii) of this section, the creditor shall credit the customer's account promptly (in no case later [than 5 days] THAN FIVE DAYS from the date of receipt), provided that the possibility of the delay is clearly disclosed to the customer on the periodic statement or on accompanying material that need not be retained by the customer.
