Rev. Melba Wharton

Please welcome!!

By Evan. Theresa E. Mercer
AFRO Church Correspondent

Minister Melba C. Wharton has joined the AFRO to help coordinate the Church Community Enrichment Program that has launched the subscription drive which started on Feb. 19.

"Many of our churches that I have called and gone out to see, are now participating in our subscription drive. I am hopeful that the remainder of the churches will do the same."

Rev. Wharton continues, "I thank God for the support that the pastors have given me thus far. I find it a privilege and a blessing to work for an organization that has been the voice of our people since 1892.

"The AFRO was our voice when we didn't have a voice. The AFRO spoke of issues that concerned us in the times past and is now speaking to issues that concern us today. We look forward to the support of all our people."

Minister Wharton is an associate Minister of Bethel A.M.E. Church under the pastorage of Rev. Frank Madison Reid, III. Rev. Wharton is Minister to the Missionary Department at Bethel, and is also one of their Sunday School Teachers.

Former Wayland Baptist Minister:

AFRO talks to Rev. Johnson

By Evan. Thersa A. Mercer
AFRO Church Correspondent

Throughout the Church community insinuations, rumors and innuendos have arisen since the resignation of Rev. Darneal F. Johnson, Jr. from Wayland Baptist Church, 3200 Garrison Blvd. on Feb. 16.

When Rev. Johnson gave the AFRO a personnal interview, we observed a ministry on the mend.

Rev. Johnson made reference to the ups and downs as pastor of Wayland, (as with any other church or family) but the overall relationship was one of great satisfaction for him.

Rev. Johnson looked back on his past years at Wayland. When he was installed as their pastor in 1970, first project of the church was to burn the mortgage.

Under his leadership, the church grew and was able to overcome its indebtedness to achieve that goal. The mortgage was burned.

New Ministries have been added to the church for families, for singles and a soup kitchen for the needy.

Church buses were provided to assist members. A elevator has been installed for the physically disabled, making a way possible for those persons who could not come into the church before.

When Rev. Johnson addressed his present position, his first words were of thanks to all the members of Wayland who have been calling, writing and to those whom he knows cares.

Rev. Johnson's words were those of love and concern for his 18-year old family at Wayland. He spoke openly about pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep. (Jeremiah 23:1).

"I really appreciate the overbounds of love and support that I am receiving from Wayland members.

"But some of the times, I do not respond because I love them, and I want them to stay together as a whole congregation without splitting and coming apart.

"I do not want to interfere with the program of the officials of the church. I want to support them that the church will continue to grow in Christ."

We discussed the reasons that prompted his recent decision to separate himself from Wayland.

"I have been confronted with many personal problems which, have made my decision for resigning at this time beneficial both to myself and the church," stated Rev. Johnson.

As a concerned Christian, I asked Rev. Johnson for those who are interested, how was he doing at this time.

"I appreciate all the concerns and I'd like for everybody to know I am being blessed. I am doing very well. I am trusting in the Lord and I hope all others are doing the same."

Rev. Johnson continued, "If I have hurt one soul, God knows, I want them to overlook that and forgive me. We have to live together. Forgiveness and accepting love is what Christ died for. I hope all will feel the same."

His message to the members of Wayland is: "There are times in life that we are hurt and I guess we have all been hurt. The words that makes me rejoice are, There is a balm in Gilead. There is a physician there.

"When we are hurt and torn up, our minds are prone to wonder. If all of us would just turn to the Lord, God would fix everything alright. That is my prayer.

"Who ever reads or hears what I say will know that God is able to heal all wounds.

"I am going to trust in the Lord that I will be healed and all of God's people will be healed, that the Church of God will go forward.

Psalm for this week:

Psalms 1
Blessed are the righteous

1. Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the scornful.
2. But his delight is in the law of the Lord; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.
3. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper.
4. The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
5. Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
6. For the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"The Lord will give strength unto His people; the Lord will bless His people with peace." Psalm 29:11.

Beloved, there is no need to be discouraged today. Won't you put your trust in the Lord god Omnipotent. Our God is able to do all things but fail. It is He who has created both the heavens and the earth. All things were created by God and for Him. Yes . . . you are the love creation of Elohim.

Oh, how he loves you.

There is no secret in your heart that is hid from Him. He knows all of your thoughts from afar. The Lord is intimately acquainted with all of your ways. . . . Know that all of your needs are met in Christ Jesus—the only begotten Son of the Father, who died that we might have life and that more abundantly.

God knows that you have need of Him. My friend, The Lord will give strength to His people.

A song writer said, God is the joy and the strength of my life . . . Because Jesus lives on the inside of every born again believer, we need not trust in our own strength and might . . . we need not put our hope in our own powers. For we have supernatural strength on the inside . . . and that strength is the strength found in Jesus Christ.

Know that God has given you the strength to meet every challenge you may face . . . He has given you strength to deal with every circumstance or situation that may come your way.

The Bible says, I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. There is no problem too big for God . . . and I'm so glad that He gives me strength to stand still and see the salvation of the Lord . . . He gives me strength to life up mine eyes unto the hills from whence cometh my help . . . He gives me strength to hold on and hold out.

The Bible says, They that wait upon the Lord shall renew their strength . . . Beloved, they that hope in the Lord shall gain new strength . . . Halleluiah!

The Bible says, The Lord will bless His people with peace. I'm so glad that Jesus is my peace today. When storm clouds rise in my life . . . when strong winds begin to blow . . . when all around my soul gives way . . . I'm so glad that I can stand on Christ the solid Rock.

Therefore, I don't have to worry about tomorrow, because I know the One that holds the future in His hands. . . . I don't have to fear what man shall do unto me, because if God be for me, He's more than the whole world against me. The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom
