Sharp Street Memorial UM Church:

Feeding the homeless, needy and the hungry

By Evan. Theresa Merger
AFRO
Church Correspondent

"We feed on the average of 300 people each Wednesday and Friday," states Rev. Charles A. Johnson, II, pastor of Sharp Street Memorial United Methodist Church.

A soup kitchen that serves a full course nutritious meal complete with dessert and beverage is served to the homeless, the unemployed and the foodless.

The late Mrs. Ruby Gill, started a Soup Kitchen in 1983.

Since her death, Charles S. Harper has been coordinator of the Sharp Street Soup Kitchen located on the corner of Dolphin and Etting Streets.

When farmers from Western Maryland became aware of Sharp Street and a sister church's desire to feed the hungry, fruits and vegetables were donated to the Soup Kitchen.

Once the crops have been donated, some of Sharp Street members, along with people from their sister church, go together to New Windsor, Md., where they can the food.

The use of the cannery is also donated to further the cause. The Second Helping is an organization which stems from Hands Across America and acts as a big brother aiding the Soup Kitchen.

Second Helping contacts wholesalers, hotels, restaurateurs, and food distribution centers.

Their efforts have been successful in supplying meats, pies, bread, buns and other food items important to the success of the Soup Kitchen.

All possible steps are taken to run a cost - efficient program to make it possible for others to be fed.

Rev. Johnson would like to see the church in a position to feed those in need every day of the week.

Sharp Street, founded 200 years ago, is a by product of Lovely Lane United Methodist Church. Methodism came to Baltimore in 1784.

From the very beginning blacks have been a part of the structure of the Methodist Church.

In the early years, blacks could not worship in the naves unless they used chairs along the walls. When the Church grew, the blacks had to worship from the balconies.

Because of this blatant segregation and racism the blacks formed their own society from which Sharp Street and Bethel were formed.

Sharp Street has always been a forerunner for the black community along with other churches. Morgan State University had it's humble beginnings at Sharp Street Church.

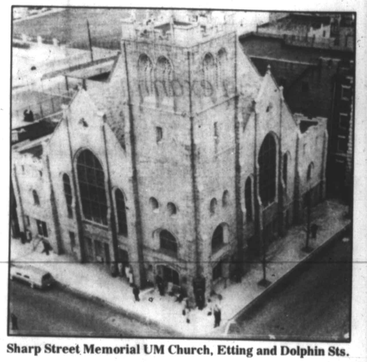
RE-CREATION—On Good Friday, there was a re-creation of the arrival of Jesus into Judea. Eric Anderson, on the horse, portrayed the Savior, as Rev. Charles Johnson, in the dark robe, and Ray Florence, in front, formed a part of the procession.



Sharp Street Memorial UM Church, Etting and Dolphin Sts.

When Morgan was founded, its original name was Centenary Biblical Institute.

The members of Sharp Street have always had strong leadership in our community. Frederick Douglass sang on the choir.

Mrs. Lillie Mae Jackson, a strong advocate for our civil rights, and Clarence Mitchell were all members of Sharp Street.

Sharp Street Church has certainly taken a bold step to forward God's cause in the earth, to be their brother's keeper.

Let us stay prayerful that this unified effort will remain in existence according to God's divine plan.

Easter Sunday

Easter is observed throughout the Christian world in commemoration of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. It is considered the holiest day in Christendom.

The date for Easter varies. The celebration of Easter comes on the first Sunday after the full moon, following the vernal equinox.

My favorite Psalm

My favorite Psalm is Psalm 121. When I was in grade school, our teachers had us to say the Psalm every morning and sing, "I Come to the Garden Alone."

We always had a Bible word and a prayer and a song in our school each morning at School No. 108, Gilmor and Presstman Streets in the year 1936.

MARION FLESHMAN

Psalm 121

1. I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help.
2. My help cometh from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.
3. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved; He that keepeth thee will not slumber nor sleep.
5. The Lord is thy keeper: the Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.
6. The sun shall not smite thee by day, nor the moon by night.
7. The Lord shall preserve thy going out and thy coming in from this time forth, and even forevermore.

How to get your church news in the AFRO

The AFRO welcomes letters and notices concerning activities scheduled at the various churches in our community. In order to have your church events published in the AFRO:
