A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver." II Corinthians 9:7

Praise God from whom all blessing flow! God is the giver of every good and perfect gift. Have you determined within your heart that all that you have belongs to Jesus? And so it is that God has given to me all that I have...even the very breath of life.

The Bible says that God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son; that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish, but have everlasting life. The love of God was translated into the gift of eternal life for all who would accept the Lord Jesus Christ as their personal Lord and Savior. Love gives.

My friend, it is the will of God that we give..not grudgingly or with the hope of personal gain, but cheerfully and out of the abundance of our heart. Well...what shall we give? Many times, we feel that we have done our duty of giving after we have paid our tithes and offerings at the church where we hold membership. Does giving for you mean just sending a donation to the Red Cross, dropping a few coins in the blind man's tin can...buying a needy child a new pair of shoes? Certainly, as Christians we are to support the work of the church with our financial blessings, and in like manner, reach out and embrace the needs of our community by fulfilling their materialistic needs.

Yet God is calling for a people who would go beyond the giving of materialistic gifts. God is calling for a people who are willing to unselfishly and sacrificially give of their time...their talents...their love...their life.

Well...how can I give of my time? For some, giving of their time is visiting some senior citizen in a nursing home...going to a hospital ward and holding somebody's hand who has been diagnosed as dying of cancer...giving is taking time out of our busy schedule to be a blessing to somebody else.

God wants us to give our love. My friend, love can be expressed in many ways...a friendly handshake...a warm embrace...a nod of understanding... a word of encouragement...a smile...a touch...just being there. Have you loved anybody lately.

My friend, only after we have given of ourselves totally to the Lord will we know how to truly give, when we give our hearts to the Lord, He fills us with His love...His joy . . . His peace . . . His goodness...His beauty. We can now give to others that gift that God has placed in us. My friend, reach out and touch somebody's life...

Ministers and lay leaders are attending the 173rd meeting of the Baltimore Annual Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church, (AME), in session at the handsome new home of Payne Church at Madison Ave. and Laurens St.

The Rev. Howard Camper is pastor of the church which recently completed restoration of the property on its present site.

On Wednesday afternoon there was a dedication ceremony. The presiding bishop, the Rt. Rev. H. Hartford Brookins, officiated.

He urged the congregation to open the doors wide for Young people, including them on the steward and trustee boards, observing, "if they're old enough to buy cars and homes, they're old enough to come in."

He drew laughter when he reminded members that church pews do not belong to those who purchase them — this is not a church with pews for just us folks, but for the whole community, he said, and added, "I challenge you to use this church to refresh your Christian lives . . ."

Mayor Kurt Schmoke called the new church "beautiful," and "a sign of hope for residents of the community," which he said made him "proud."

Other program participants, former Bethel pastor, the Rt. Rev. John R. Bryant, presiding bishop, Liberia; and from Montgomery, Ala., Bishop Frank Madison Reid, Jr., father of present Bethel pastor, Rev. Frank Madison Reid, 3rd, and stepfather of our city's mayor, Kurt Schmoke.

Coach Hurt

An estimated 400 persons attended memorial services Friday morning for famed Morgan State University coach and mentor, Edward P. Hurt, who died March 24 at the age of 89.

The rites in the Carl Murphy Auditorium on Morgan campus attracted former associates, students, relatives and friends from Va., Pa., N.Y., N.J., N.C., Tenn., Ohio, Del., and D.C.

There were warm tributes in verse and song — attesting to Coach Hurt's 41-year career (1929-70), as teacher, coach in football, track and field, and maker of champions.

In his eulogy — retired Methodist Bishop Edward G. Carroll, a student when Hurt joined the Morgan faculty, remembered him as a "a caring person," who "loved his pupils, his players and his colleagues.

Nice gesture: Some 110 Omega Psi Phi Fraternity members conducted fraternal rites and raised their voices in song under the leadership of President Art Lambert and Rev. William Bailey, song leader.

66 years

Standing straight and tall — his wife of 66 years — Beatrice Reed Hurt. After burial in Arbutus, some 100 relatives and friends joined her for dinner in the McKeldin Center.

In the crowd: Dr. Leroy Walker, the Olympic commissioner from Raleigh, N.C., former basketball and grid star, Dr. Alvin (Boo) Brown, Nashville; former football star W. Leonard Goode of W. Palm Beach, Fla., and from N.J., former star athletes, Larry Baron, Dr. Ernest W. Garrett, and Earl Byrd and Roosevelt Brown, the first grid star Hurt coached to become pro with the N.Y. Giants.

Former track star, Luther Thomas, was here from N.Y., football star, Otis Troupe from D.C., also Dr. David Harris, Reginald Ballard and Daniel M. Pritchette, III, from D.C., and from Dayton, Ohio, Laura Robinson Jones, early staff member, and from Philadelphia, Dr. Charles Jenkins and Josh Culbreath.
