A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

Ephesians 6:10

Did you know that there is a war going on? Stop and consider the turmoil and strife existent within the world today . . . within our families today . . . within our relationships today. There is a war going on. Mothers and fathers are abusing their children . . . husbands and wives are ending up in divorce courts . . . people are shooting, killing, stealing, raping, envying, backbiting, lying, cheating, gambling, and committing suicide. Yes, there is a war going on.

Beloved, but what God would have you to know is that this war is not a physical war; it is a spiritual war. It is an attack of the enemy . . . It is Satan trying to steal your joy. The Bible says that Satan is roaming to and fro seeking whom he can devour. Satan does not like you. He wants to bring division in your home . . . He wants to destroy your marriage . . . He wants you to stay in bondage to alcohol and drugs . . . He wants to keep you bound by fear, depression, and oppession. . . . He wants to utterly destroy you.

My friend, there is a word of hope. The battle has already been won. Jesus already conquered sickness, death, and the grave when He died on an old rugged cross, was buried, and arose on the third day—victorious and alive forevermore. Satan is a defeated foe!

Yet, Satan, who is the father of lies, would have God's people believe that they are defeated and powerless. Satan would have us believe that our boss is our enemy . . . or our husband is our enemy. Beloved, know that the war is not against your sister or brother. The war is against Satan. But the good news is that he is already defeated. That means that when he begins to shoot fiery darts our way . . . when he begins to launch an attack against our mind, we can rest assure that in Christ Jesus we are more than a conqueror. You see Satan knows that he is defeated . . . but he is a deceiver . . . He would have you believe that the ball is in his court.

But I'm so glad today . . . that I can stand on the Word of God . . . I'm seated with Christ Jesus in a heavenly place. I have the power to speak to the mountains, and they've got to move . . . I've got the power to lay hands on the sick and command infimities and disease to leave in the name of Jesus . . . I've got the power to tell Satan to back up . . . And he'd better back up. Whatsoever I shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven . . . Whatsoever I shall lose on earth shall be lost in heaven.

My friend, we've got to put on the whole armour of God, that we may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil . . . that we may be able to stand against his lies and deceptions . . . that we may be able to put Satan back in His place — under our feet.

Beloved, "stand therefore, having your loins gird about with truth, and having the breast plate of righteousness; and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; above all, taking the shield of faith, where with ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching there unto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;" Ephesians 6:18. My friend, you have the victory! !

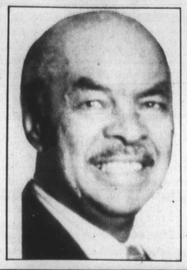
AREA OBITUARIES

Judge Benjamin Foreman



Benjamin Harrison Foreman, Jr., 74, the first black judge to serve on the city's Orphans' Court, died Sunday evening at Mercy Hospital. He had suffered a heart ailment for some time.

Funeral services were held Friday morning, (May 5), at St. Cecilia's Catholic Church, where he was a corporator, a member of the Holy Name Society.

Called "Ben" by friends and associates, Judge Foreman was highly regarded as a legal advisor. His longtime friend and associate, retired Court of Special Appeals Judge David T. Mason remembered him as "an excellent lawyer and judge."

A native of Galveston, Tex., Judge Foreman was the son of the late Cora and Benjamin H. Foreman, Sr. He earned his bachelor's degree from Prairie View College, Prairie View, Texas, in 1937.

Shortly afterwards, he came to Baltimore to work at the then-new Social Security headquarters in the Candler Building. There, he was the agency's first black supervisor and field representative.

During World War II, he served with an Army postal unit and was stationed in England from 1942-46. After the war, he entered the U. of Md. Law School, where he was graduated in 1951.

He was in private practice in the city when Gov. Mandel picked him to become the first black judge on the Orphans' Court in 1971. He was reelected to the court for two terms, retiring in 1981.

Judge Foreman was a life member of the NAACP, and belonged to the Knights of Columbus, the American Bar Association, and the National Bar Association and the Monumental Bar Association.

He belonged to two men's club, the Phalanx and the Committee X, was a member of the Couple's Club and the Senior Golfers.

He is survived by his wife of 48 years, the former Adelle Meredith, a retired Baltimore city teacher; two aunts, Mrs. Lucy Haller, Galveston, Tex., and Mrs. Florence Cody, Chicago; mother-in-law, Mrs. Lena Meredith, who resides with them; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Vivian Foreman, Lanarque, Texas.

The family suggests contributions to the Goodman--Foreman Scholarship Fund, St. Cecilia's Church, Windsor and Hilton Sts., Baltimore, Md. 21216.
