

with the number on the license issued to the owner, as provided in Section 136. The tags shall also have impressed thereon the calendar year for which the tag is issued, and shall not be more than two (2) inches in length, and shall be equipped with a substantial metal fastening device. The general shape of the tag shall be changed from year to year, and the tags furnished the owners of kennels shall have the word "Kennel" thereon. If any tag is lost it shall be replaced by the County Treasurer, or dog warden or his deputy, upon application by the person to whom the original license was issued, upon the production of the license and payment of a fee of fifty cents.]

(Note: This section is proposed for repeal inasmuch as its provisions are covered substantially by Article 56, Section 193. That section is being amended by this bill to reflect the slight variance in the provisions relating to Calvert County.)

[The County Commissioners of Calvert County shall appoint a dog warden and may appoint deputy wardens in their discretion. The dog warden and any deputies appointed shall serve at the discretion of the County Commissioners and shall be paid such salary and allowances for travel as the Commissioners may prescribe. Before entering upon the duties of the office, the dog warden and any deputy dog wardens appointed shall give bond to the State of Maryland with good and sufficient surety, to be approved by the Commissioners, in such penalty as the Commissioners shall determine conditioned on the faithful performance of duties and proper accounting for all monies and property received by virtue of the position. The bond shall be in the form of a "public employee's faithful performance blanket bond" for the dog warden and all deputies, if possible. The premiums shall be borne by Calvert County, and the bonds shall be filed and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the County.]

(Note: The provisions of this section seem to be placed logically in Article 56, Section 194. This section is proposed to be placed in that section as a new subsection (p), therefore.)

[It shall be the duty of the dog warden and any deputies appointed to enforce the provisions of this subtitle. The dog warden or his duly authorized deputies shall have the power to issue summons to any person violating any provision of this subtitle.]
