

majority of the residents of the platted subdivision or district zoned residential, with a designation of the boundary limits of the specific area. Further, the County Commissioners, after advertising the proposed ordinance and a public hearing on that ordinance for three consecutive weeks in all three newspapers of general circulation in Calvert County, shall designate the boundary limits of each area as part of any enacted ordinance.]

(Note: This section is proposed for repeal and its provisions are to be transferred to Article 56, Section 200 of the Annotated Code.)

[143.]

[All dogs seized and impounded under Section 142 shall be held for the owner thereof for a period of seventy-two (72) hours. During this period any dog seized under the provisions of Section 142 shall be released to the owner, or his duly authorized representative, upon satisfactory proof of ownership, tender of a fee, in such amount as the County Commissioners shall determine, for the costs of seizure and impounding, and upon presentation of the license for the dog as prescribed in Section 136.]

(Note: This section is proposed for repeal and its provisions are to be transferred to Article 56, Section 200 of the Annotated Code.)

[144.]

[Any owner not redeeming his dog within seventy-two (72) hours under the provisions of Section 143, shall be deemed to have forfeited all rights of ownership and the dog shall be deemed the property of Calvert County. The dog shall remain impounded for additional forty-eight (48) hours, during which time any person desiring, may obtain ownership of the dog by tendering the fee for the costs of seizure and impounding and by purchasing a license as required by Section 136.]

(Note: This section is proposed for repeal and its provisions are to be transferred to Article 56, Section 200 of the Annotated Code.)

[145.]

[Any dog seized as aforesaid and not redeemed within 120 hours from time of seizure, may be killed by the dog warden or one of his duly authorized deputies. If it is killed, it shall be killed in the most humane manner possible.]

(Note: This section is proposed for repeal and its provisions are to be transferred to Article 56, Section 200 of the Annotated Code.)