AREA OBITUARIES

Antonio Johnson

Antonio Johnson, son of the late Nathaniel Johnson, Jr. and Fay Johnson, was born September 13, 1966 in Baltimore.

He attended Baltimore City public schools and graduated from the Edmondson Senior High School Honors Program in 1985. Throughout his high school years, Antonio was also a member of the Gilman Upward Bound Program.

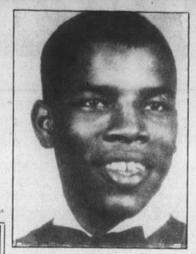
While at Edmondson High, he participated on the wrestling and swimming teams, winning numerous athletic awards.

He attended Bowie State College following high school. In 1986, Tony decided to serve his country by joining the United States Army Reserves.

Memorial services were held on Monday, May 1, 1989, at the Highway Church of Christ.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Fay Johnson; two brothers, Nathaniel, III and Jermaine; one sister, Traci Yolanda Evans;

His maternal grandmother, Bertha Knox; fraternal grandmother, Mattie Johnson.



Calvin Parker, Sr.

Calvin William Parker, son of Susie and Calvin W. Parker, was born on December 31, 1910 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was graduated from Douglass High School. He was married to the former Mary Elizabeth Hall for fifty-eight years.

He joined St. Paul United Methodist Church at the age of fifteen and was the oldest continuously active male member of that church.

Although Mr. Parker was formerly employed at the Social Security Administration, he was retired from the U.S. Postal Service in 1973 after thirty-six years of service. He was active in the National Alliance of Postal and Federal Employees, Local 202, for fifty years and served the local chapter as Financial Secretary for twenty-two years.

Once a member of the Elks and of S.C.O.R.E., a social couples club, he was fond of traveling. He was dedicated to helping others- the sick, elderly, disabled, and those less fortunate. He was a kind, loving, supportive husband, father and grandfather, who was extremely proud of this family. His friends remember him as "truly a nice person, one you don't meet everyday"; "everybody liked Calvin"; "he set a good example, the kind a lot of people have tried to follow." His family always though of him as a "prince among men."

He leaves to mourn: two daughters, Delores P. Kerr and Jean C. Parker, two sons, Calvin Jr. and Reginald Parker; a sister, Mildred Boone; four grandchildren, David L. Kerr of Yeadon, Pennsylvania, Kimberly, Mary, Elizabeth and Calvin Parker, III; one son-in-law, Judson Kerr, Sr.; two daughter-in-law, Claudette and Anita Parker, all natives of Baltimore.

Nelson F. Pryor, Jr., son of Nelson France Pryor, Sr. and the late Yvonne R. Pryor, was born on April 14, 1971 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Nelson attended elementary and junior high school at St. Charles and was an eleventh grader at Cardinal Gibbons High School at the time of his death. He loved mathematics and spent an abundance of his free time developing his skills and interests in computers. He had recently expressed an interest in becoming a computer engineer.

He was a loving and caring person who never complained or viewed his disability as disabling.

Nelson leaves to mourn: his father, Nelson F. Pryor, Sr.; two sisters, Yvette and Terita; one nephew, Derrod Leslie; a niece, LaVonne Leslie; three grandmothers, Ms. Gloria Guider, Mrs. Maggie Moore and Mrs. Lucy Thomas; three aunts; Ms. Lorraine Guider, Mrs. Sylvia Cooper and Mrs. Rachel Eaton; and a host of other relatives and devoted friends.
