Strawbridge United Methodist

A church looking to the future

By Evan. Theresa Mercer
AFRO Church Writer

Strawbridge United Methodist Church located at Park and Wilson Streets is an old church with a new spirit.

The church edifice was built by John Goucher, is now 152 years old, but the pastor for the past two years Rev. Charles F. Johnson, III, is under 30 years of age.

Since Rev. Johnson has become pastor to Strawbridge, the Bread of Life pantry was started and now feeds 200 people weekly. The church members give of their time to bag and distribute food to those in need.

Certain members of Strawbridge who are teachers, began a fellowship between their church and a children's choir from their school. These children do not attend or belong to a church.

These children are exposed to a worship service every three months when the choir comes to Strawbridge to sing in the 11 o'clock service.

The children so look forward to the experience that they have encouraged other children to come and join in. The children's choir has grown to 140 strong.

Strawbridge realizes the gospel tells us to go into all the world. 'We don't have the right to get happy about Moses telling Pharoah to let my people go, until we can do something about South Africa,' states Rev. Johnson.

The church has aligned itself with Clergy and Laity Concern, an organization started over 20 years ago here in the city by the late Dr. Martin L. King, Jr.

This group helped premier the anti-apartheid film, "Cry Freedom." Recently the Clergy and Laity Concern helped sponsor House Bill No. 681, in the Maryland State Senate.

This bill states, that the State of Maryland would not invest any more pension funds from State Employees into South African businesses.

"Our dollars will not go to support something as evil as aparthied. We're taking a stand against evil.

We are not really who we say we are in Christ until we try to pull down the strongholds. We're just determined to be who we are in Christ.

I am happy about that! We try to reach out beyond our denomination. I think another reason the kingdom is being stunted is, folk just hold to themselves and get so contained within themselves, and the kingdom is bigger than just us.

"There are other folk who may baptize differently, they may commune differently, or they may accept folk into the family differently;

"But if they believe in the same risen Lord as we do, then we can affirm that. We can affirm our differences, we can affirm our unity in Jesus," boldly states Rev. Johnson.

He continues on, "tradition has it's place, but, we need to be in a position to receive all that God has for us."

The falling away that the church was experiencing is being turned around by the Holy Spirit, as Strawbridge continues to be a blessing.

Strawbridge's unique history can be seen and heard at the church.

The church organ is the second oldest in the State of Maryland.

The church's pulpit is made from a tree from the yard of Robert Strawbridge for whom the church is named.

HISTORIC — The exquisitely inlaid organ is one of the treasures outlining the history of Strawbridge UM Church.

Each Sunday held its very own in "Holy Deliverance." Two spectacular "twin" Mothers of the Year and honors went to Sisters Claudette Sutton and Blanche LeCompte.

Beatrice Rodwell, a lady always in waiting and always on call and on duty, received a standing ovation as "Woman of the Year."

Union Women: Choosing priorities for Christian Living. Our guest speaker and lady of the pulpit was The Rev. Charlene Monk. Rev. Monk delivered a blessing flowing message.

To top it all off for our Women's Day Celebration - the Union Family had "An Evening of Musical Harmony" Program featuring William Sydnor, Rebecca Henderson and "The Dobsons."

Talking about an evening of musical harmony - well, the Union Family had the icing on the cake.

There was a tasteful and delightful reception following the program. Special added attractions and thank yous and hats off to the choir directors and music of the organist, John Miller.

The whole month of May — purpose is what gives life meaning.

Appreciation is a wonderful thing. All women of Union did exactly just that.

Showing their love and Christian living for the "Love of God" Union women showing their love won't let them wait in choosing priorities for Christian living
