AREA OBITUARIES

Ella Mae Bevans

Ella Mae Bevans, daughter of the late Joseph Murray Willis and the late Nannie Gross Willis, was born on May 25, 1925 in Baltimore, Maryland. Mrs. Bevans died on June 3, 1989.

Mrs. Bevans was educated in the Baltimore City school system. She was employed at the Maran Printing Company for 30 years.

She wed the late Roland Bevans on August 31, 1948.

From this union came five children, Roland Bevans, Karen Hunter, Annette Marsh, Colin Bevans and Elaine Foster.

Mrs. Bevans leaves to mourn: one sister, Margaret Clary; one brother, Charles Willis;

Six sisters-in-law, two brothers-in-law; three sons-in-law, one daughter-in-law; one aunt, Beatrice Brown; seven grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Victoria M. Stewart

Victoria M. Stewart, the daughter of Elizabeth Stewart and the late Thomas Stewart, was born on June 18, 1949 in Baltimore, Maryland. She died on June 4.

She received her education at Paul Lawrence Dunbar Senior High School. She attended Coppin State College until she became ill. She was employed by Rosewood State Hospital in 1977 as a teacher's assistant. She was a faithful and diligent worker.

She made many friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her.

She leaves to mourn: her daughter, Shannon Stewart; mother, Elizabeth Stewart; one brother, Thomas Stewart; grandmother, Edna Thomas; four aunts, two nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Lula M.W. O'Neal

Lula M. W. O'Neal, daughter of the late James and Eva Weston, was born on December 2, 1914 in Currituck, North Carolina. Mrs. O'Neal died June 4, after a short illness.

She graduated from Washington High School, N.C. Upon completing her education at the Elizabeth City Normal School, she began her teaching career in 1935.

She married Robert Lee O'Neal on February 24, 1951, and out of this union one daughter, Sondra, was born.

She leaves to mourn: her devoted husband, Robert; one daughter, Sondra; a son-in-law, Alfred Cawthorne; three grandchildren, Anthony, Alexandra and Alisha;

Six sisters, Dolly, Bernice, Hattie, Tauheedah, Alithia and Dorothy, and one brother, Nathaniel, all of Baltimore, Maryland;

Five godchildren, a number of cousins, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

Clinest Lee Hawkins, Jr.

Clinest Lee Hawkins, Jr., son of Clinest, Sr. and Joan Hawkins, was born on July 8, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. Hawkins died on June 2, 1989.

"Rerun" or "Junior" as he was affectionately called, graduated from Walbrook Senior High School in 1977. Clinest had a great passion for racing cars and tinkering with the mechanisms of cars. He could often be found under someone's automobile, ready to be of help.

Clinest leaves to mourn: his loving mother, Joan; two sons, Clinest, III and Christopher;

Ten aunts, four uncles, five great aunts, three great uncles, three great nieces, a devoted and living fiancee, Sandra Shaw; and a host of many other relatives and friends.

Blandena Edmonds

Blandena Edmonds, daughter of Robert and Blanche Goodman, was born November 5, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland. Mrs. Edmonds died June 1, after a short illness.

She received her education at Carver Vocational High School in Baltimore, where she received her license for Cosmetology. She pursued here career for several years.

In January, 1988, she became employed by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. She joined the Ebenezer Baptist Church and served on the Usher Board at an early age.

Blandena and George W. Edmonds, Jr. were joined in holy matrimony and from this union, one child was born, Deana Sherron Edmonds.

She leaves to mourn: her husband, George W. Edmonds, Jr.; one daughter, Deana Sherron; mother Blanche Goodman; father, Robert O. Goodman;

Three sisters, Yvonne Queen, Shirley Goodman, and Roberta Jackson; grandfather, James W. Stukes, grandmother, Eva Goodman;

Great grandmother, Maggie Briggs; father-in-law, George W. Edmonds, Sr.; stepmother-in-law, five brothers-in-law, three sisters-in-law, nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Lucy Gallardo

Mrs. Lucy Wilson Gallardo, 73, died on Wednesday, June 7, at Md. General Hospital. She had been hospitalized since last November with kidney ailment and complications.

Mrs. Gallardo, a native Baltimorean, attended city public schools. She was fond of cooking and preparing tasty dishes. She and her third husband, the late Jerry Gallardo were head chefs at the MGM restaurant in Las Vegas for several years.

Following his death in 1979, she returned here and resided on Hillen Rd. in northeast Baltimore until three years ago when she moved with her sister on N. Fremont Ave.

Mrs. Gallardo was the daughter of the late Elroy Wilson, pioneer Baltimore mortician, and the late Lucy Deaver Wilson.

She was a member of the Big Sister Club and is remembered as an unusually jolly person who delighted in helping others.

Survivors, a sister, Mrs. Leslie Harrison; stepmother, Mrs. Lillian Wilson, an aunt, Mrs. Hilda Thomas, all of Baltimore; and a niece who she considered a daughter, Mrs. Tammara Petera, and a great neice, Shelley, both of Las Vegas.

Funeral services were held Monday morning at St. Pius Catholic Church.

James Wilbur Stokes

James Wilbur Stokes, the oldest of five children of the late Lucinda and George Stokes, was born on March 9, 1922, in Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. Stokes died on June 2.

After graduating from Douglass High School in June 1939, he attended Princess Ann College for two years afterwhich he joined the United States Army.

Following his discharge from the U.S. Army, he married the former Viola Scott on April 27, 1948. From this union they were blessed with a wonderful daughter, Jacqueline Celeste.

He leaves to mourn: a devoted wife, Viola; a loving daughter, Jacqueline; a son-in-law, Robert Eng; a granddaughter, Laura Elizabeth; two sisters, Lillian Layton and Josephine Thorne;

One brother, George; sister-in-law, Myrtle Stokes; seven nieces, three nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"Commit thy way unto the Lord; trust also in Him; and He shall bring it to pass." Psalm 37:5.

My friend, God is faithful. Yes, He is true to His word. The Bible says every promise of God is yea and Amen. God is not a man that He should lie. If God said it, you can believe it . . . you can count on it . . . you can rely on it. God shall bring it to pass.

While God is faithful to us, there are some things He expects of us. God requires from us, faith in Him; for without faith, it is impossible to please God. Faith is taking God at His word . . . It is trusting in the Lord with all of our heart and leaning not to our own understanding . . . It is believing God no matter what the present circumstances we're faced with, or condition we're in. Faith turns God on.

The Bible says that we are to commit our way unto the Lord. That means that I am not on my own agenda, I'm on God's agenda. Therefore, I must declare, not as I will, but as thou hast wilt. Are you willing to totally surrender to the Lord Jesus today? Oh, how He loves you.

If we are to commit our way to the Lord, it is something that we must do wholeheartedly. We must yield our plans and goals to the Lord God Omniscient. The Bible says Thou wilt seek me and find me after you have searched for me with all of your heart. God is looking for a people who are fully committed . . . a people who are totally sold out to Jesus.

My friend, let us determine in our heart and mind that God's way is the best way . . . His plan for our life is what's best.

God wants us to totally surrender every aspect of our life to Him. Is Jesus the very Lord of your life today? Is He seated on the throne? . . . or are there areas that you are still master of?

Well . . . in order to allow the Lord Jesus to be the Lord of our life, we must trust God. A song writer said, T'is so sweet to trust in Jesus; just to take him at His word. Just to rest upon His promise; just to know thus saith the Lord.

My friend, God really has your best interest at heart. The Bible says that all things work together for the good for them that love the Lord and who are called according to His purpose. Isn't it good to know that something good is happening in your life? Isn't it good to know that God is.

Whatever God said He would do, that, He will do. The Bible says, he shall bring it to pass. That which is already done in the spiritual realm shall be made manifest in the physical. God wants to loose His power in your life . . . He wants you to receive the fullness of His peace . . . the fullness of His joy. God wants to set you free today.

Bryn Mawr School seeks Director of Music
The Bryn Mawr School is a college-preparatory, independent day school for more than 600 girls (K-12) and 200 boys and girls in two early childhood centers. The School is fiscally sound with competitive salaries and benefits, a beautiful wooded campus and excellent facilities, a strong enrollment and a comprehensive financial aid program. Bryn Mawr takes pride in its spirit of collegiality, the professional accomplishments of its faculty and staff, and the national recognition that has come to the School from its founding in 1885 to the present.
The City of Baltimore is an exciting cultural center centrally located in the N.Y.-D.C. corridor; its educational resources are immense and contribute significantly to the personal and professional growth of Bryn Mawr faculty and staff.
We are accepting applications for the position of Music Director. We invite dynamic, well-qualified candidates to lead music activities school-wide and to direct Upper School programs. Choral and piano experience required; theatre experience preferred. State-of-the-art, 500-seat auditorium provides setting for performances. Send resumes:
