SAFETY & RELIABILITY

"We have a customer who was prescribed Tagamet® by his internist to treat ulcers. The customer had been previously prescribed Inderal® by his cardiologist to lower high blood pressure. The PROFILE system warned us that Tagamet® increases the effectiveness of Inderal.® This interaction could cause hypotension (low blood pressure), dizziness, bronchospasm or fainting. We immediately contacted both doctors and they agreed to change the Tagamet® medication to Zantac.®"

Well done Emmanuel C.C. Church

By Evan. Theresa Mercer
AFRO Church Writer

Congratulations to our second place winners of the AFRO Subscription drive.

Emmanuel Christian Community Church, well done!!!

The 55 year old Emmanuel C.C. Church was once part of the A.M.E. movement.

In 1934, Allen African Methodist Episcopal Church was suddenly left without a pastor. The district's Bishop Davis sent Rev. Robert Stansbury from Havre De Grace, Maryland to pastor Allen A.M.E.

Conflict within Allen A.M.E. caused Rev. Stansbury, the trustee board, other organizations and many of it's members to seek a new Church home. For the lack of an official Church the congregation began to worship in the homes of some of its members.

In time, the congregation stopped worshipping in each others homes and went to worship first with Rev. Levi Miller, Sr. and then with Rev. Hale at Bethelehem Baptist Church in the 800 block of North Calhoun Street.

No matter where the congregation worshipped, God continued to add to the Church.

At last the congregation was able to locate a church site on the corner of Carrollton Ave. and Lanvale Street. The congregation purchased their home.

On Sunday, July 8, 1934, Rev. Stansbury and the congregation of more than 200 members marched up the hill to occupy their home. Later, Sister Julia Eley named the Congregation Emmanuel Christian Church (Emmanuel, meaning God with us).

Even though times were hard, Rev. Stansbury and Emmanuel trusted God and went forward in harmony. The love and harmony shared within the congregation helped make the hard times, good times.

Upon the death of Rev. Stansbury in November of 1936, a new pastor was sought. In 1937, Rev. Wilbur Waters was installed as the new Pastor of Emmanuel C. C. Church.

Rev. Waters, a man with a vision, worked as a clerk in the City Post Office. Rev. Waters was often seen in his overalls helping to do what ever had to be done to maintain Emmanuel.

During his pastorate, the membership grew to over 1,000 members and many of the organizations formed then are still in existence within Emmanuel today.

Under Rev. Waters' watch the Church also purchased and renovated the house next door to it, 1212 West Lanvale Street. Before Rev. Water's death on March 21, 1956, the church was declared debt free.

On January 15, 1958, the Rev. Sidney Daniels was elected as the third pastor of Emmanuel Christian Community Church. For 31 years Rev. Daniels and the Emmanuel Church have tried to make a difference.

Emmanuel C.C. has many organizations in operation to meet the needs of it's people. These auxiliaries are headed by some of the church's qualified members:

THANKS EMMANUEL — 61 new subscribers have signed up for the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN because of Emmanuel CC's participation in the AFRO's Church Community Enrichment Program. The second place award of $1,500 was presented to Rev. Sidney Daniels recently by AFRO President Frances M. Draper (right) and AFRO Circulation Director Andre Draper. In accepting the award, Rev. Daniels credited the efforts of Bertha Goodman (2nd from left) coordinator of the program for Emmanuel.

A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren." Luke 22:32

Isn't it good to know that we are on the winning team, the Bible says that in Christ Jesus, we are more than conquerors. We are under the banner of the Almighty God. He is our protection by day and by night . . . He is our rock and our refuge — a very present help in the time of need . . . He is our fortress and our shelter — in Him, we are helped all the day long.

When I consider our Lord—the mighty works of His hand . . . How it is He that spoke, and behold, there was light . . . How it is He that is the very creator of the heavens and the earth . . . How it is He that shaped the creature man into His own image, and into Him, blew the breath of life.

Somehow, I am awed by the greatness of His wisdom . . . the eternality of His love . . . and oh, how amazing is His wonderful grace. Our God is worthy to be praised! Hallelujah!

And oh, how He loves you. God really loves you. He loves us so much that He gave Jesus, His only begotten Son to die on the cross for our sins . . . to be bruised that we might be healed . . . to be buried that our old nature might be crucified . . . to be raised that we might arise to new life . . . new hope . . . new peace . . . new joy. Why don't you just lift up your hands right now, and give the Lord a wave offering. Just allow all that is within you to bless His holy name.

And so it is that Satan, our enemy seeks to have us, that he may sift us as wheat . . . he wants to kill you . . . he wants to destroy your hopes and dreams . . . he wants to take away your joy and your peace . . . he wants to claim your soul back for his kingdom again.

But I'm so glad that He who has saved us is able to keep us . . . He who has called us out of darkness and into His marvelous light is able to keep us. The Bible says He that has begun a good work in you is able to complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. Yes, we are sealed by the Holy Ghost: . . we are marked for God. We are covered by the blood of Jesus.

And in our focal verse, Jesus says, I have prayed for you, that your faith fail not . . . that you will not allow Satan to beat up on you . . . that you will remain steadfast in what you believe . . . that you will not lean to your own understanding . . . that you will not be tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine . . . that you will continue to walk upright and walk worthy of your calling even in the midst of a wicked and perverge generation. Isn't it good to know that Jesus is praying on our behalf . . . that He is our advocate . . . He is the great intercessor.

My friend, if God be for us, who can be against us? In Him, we live and more, and have our being . . . In Him, we have the power over our enemy . . . In Him our heart can take courage. And when we are converted . . . when we have been convinced of the wonder-working power of God . . . when we have been enlightened to the reality of the power and authority we as believers have over Satan and over the flesh . . . it is our Christian responsibility to

40,000 Baptists meet in Nashville Tennessee

By Marjorie Green

Several hundred Marylanders were among the estimated 40,000 Baptist believers who flocked to Nashville, TN for the week-long 84th Annual Congress of Christian Education led by its president, Dr. T. Oscar Chappelle, Sr. of Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The return of the nation's largest black religious denomination to Nashville after 85 years was an historic milestone in the history of the 109 year old National Baptist Convention, USA, Inc.

The gathering in Tennessee's music city was prompted by the completion and dedication of the 12 million dollar Baptist world Center, located next to the American Baptist College on Whites' Creek Pike in Nashville.

THE BUILDING

According to Dr. T.J. Jemison, the denominations president who dreamed the dream that seemed to many to be an impossible dream, "The World Center will function as a business headquarters with all the NBC boards and auxiliaries under one roof.

"It will provide classroom and conference room space, an archives and library, and a chapel which will be used by the American Baptist College."

"Nashville," he continued, "was selected to house the magnificent religious structure because the NBC, USA, Inc.'s Sunday School Publishing Board as well as the seminary are in this city."

The Center which has a lighted water fountain in its 15,000 square foot lobby, also houses a 2,800 seat auditorium with stained glass windows on each side of the baptismal pool, a cafeteria that seats 500 people and a 200 space automobile parking lot, with 15 additional spaces for buses.

The outside front of the building is flanked by 19 flags representing the U.S. and other countries affiliated with the NBC Foreign Mission Board and the World Council of Churches.

The buildings 155 foot steeple weighing 30 tons, can be seen from almost any point in the city as it towers above the Cumberland River that circles the city of Nashville.

THE DEDICATION

The impressive dedication ceremony held Wednesday, June 21, 1989 on the outside grounds was attended by such notables as Dr. Benjamin Hooks, the Rev. Jesse Jackson, Dick Gregory, Gov. Ned McWhorter of Tennessee, Gov. Buddy Roemer of Louisiana and Mayor Bill Boner of Nashville, TN.

Later the same evening, the Convention held its first worship service in the chapel with music furnished by a 300 voice choir and sermons delivered by Dr. Clay Evans, pastor of Fellowship Baptist Church, Chicago, Illinois and Dr. C.A.W. Clark, pastor of Good Street Baptist Church in Dallas, Texas.

THE BUILDER

Although he is quick to recognize the power of God in making his dream a reality, some credit for the high moment in the history of Black Baptist must be given to Rev. Dr. T.J. Jemison of Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

The building offers a permanent testimony to the visionary greatness of the 68-year-old leader who has stood at the helm of the 7.8 million member convention since his widely publicized election September 9, 1982 in Miami Beach, Florida.

Quoting the words of NBC's historian, Dr. Clarence Wagner of Georgia, "Men are
