In The Stars

CANCER (June 22-July 23): This weekend, if you feel life is wearing you down, look into yourself and find out what the problems are. Other than that, things should be going well. There are many planets in harmony with you at this time. Work on getting things in order. Those who are closest to you can be the cause of a financial problem; restrain the urged to overspend just to keep loved ones happy. Better hurt feelings than heavy bills.

LEO (July 24-August 23): The time is here for you to start analyzing things that are important to you and expressing yourself in every possible way. Your mind will want to capture as much new material as possible. Somewhat irksome conditions in the morning may inhibit your ability to express your feelings around home. Things will work out best now if you just coast along with events.

VIRGO (August 23-September 21): Your interactions with others will be much more lively this week. There will be many short trips; even if you take a long one, get busy if you have things that need to be put in order. Recent fortunate trends run out of steam and you will do yourself a favor by staying on the sidelines. This may be the day to do something about a home or family dream if you're nurturing one.

LIBRA (September 22-October 23): There may be some opposition in the home this weekend; be on guard and make sure things stay in order. By Monday evening, things should be back to normal. The rest of the week looks favorable for dealing with your emotions. A misunderstanding with a friend over money can put a different slant on weekend plans, probably this afternoon. Don't read too much into a travel invitation tonight.

SCORPIO (October 24-November 21): The week is very good for expressing your inner self to your loved ones. It can be very beneficial to you to be yourself. No matter what it takes, bring out your inner thoughts. This may be one of those days when you're using less than ten percent of your native intelligence. If so, you can expect a few annoying setbacks regarding personal goals.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22-December 21): The week can be filled with emotional problems if you are involved with people or things that no longer have any use in your life. Clean house if needed. If you were born before Dec. 8, things should start getting better and with less limitations. You're liable to get stuck with some sort of weekend chore obligation you may have conveniently forgotten about.

CAPRICORN (December 22-January 20): As stated earlier, take advantage of the rewards that are coming to you at this time. You are very thrifty at this time; proceed very carefully and put your money to good use. Weekend social life goes no where fast during this cycle, possibly because of a financial misunderstanding. In any case, don't be cavalier about a weekend chore tonight.

AQUARIUS (January 21-February 19): If you are having problems in your romantic life at this time, you may need to seek help or have a compatibility chart done. You have no time to go through unnecessary changes. You do not need those problems in your home or around your children. After dealing with some vexing matters, you're ready to enjoy the weekend social scene.

PISCES (February 20-March 20): The weekend should be a good time for relaxing around the house with your mate or with people you feel comfortable with. The rest of the week, be careful of acting childish with your mate and do not be misled by others. If you have alcohol or drug problems, be careful. Get down to the business of planning a good future for yourself.

ARIES (March 21-April 20): If you have problems to weigh out, this is the time to do so. Dramatic events are at a high for many of you. You may even travel to see a good show or to visit with brothers and sisters. This is also the time for communication with self. The keyword is "think." You may have to change or cancel plans if a weekend shopping jaunt with a chum was in the works.

TAURUS (April 21-May 21): If you are having visits from family members, from in or out of town, make sure you are ready and have enough food and time to go around. Do not be bull-headed. There continues to be plenty of partnership activity, but adverse trends will stir things up the wrong way. Be wary of extravagance or a domestic misunderstanding.

GEMINI (May 22-June 21): If you drive, be careful, this is not the week to take chances. Also, be careful of what you say and do and cool out on communicating with brothers and sisters. The start of the weekend could be somewhat of a letdown in contrast to recent happenings, but it will provide you with a chance to catch up on some home-base projects.

—Tell it to Jan

Dear Jan:

I'm in a love with a man who treats me like dirt.

When we started going together, he always wanted me as his "special" friend. We did a lot of things together, later I fell in love with him.

As soon as he found out that I loved him, he changed. Now he says he doesn't have any feelings at all for me and wants to be left alone.

He spends more time with his buddies than with me. Jan, I will do anything for him, give him anything he wants. I don't want to lose him.

Presently, I am so upset I could kill him. I just can't take anymore of this mistreatment. I want to see him dead - then I will be at peace.

Mrs. R.E.D.

Dear Mrs. R.E.D.:

Actions are supposed to speak louder than words, therefore, my dear lady, he is NOT interested in you neither is he in love with you.

You need to unload this creep and find someone who will return your friendship. He is not worth going to jail for - consider yourself lucky for losing him.

Dear Jan:

Last year I met Steve in the company cafeteria. We became friends, and eventually lovers.

Then I found out he lives with a girl and has two young children by her. But I was already in love.

Two months ago I became pregnant. Steve told me to have an abortion, but I refused. Now he is furious and refuses to see me. He can't understand why I would go ahead and have a baby without being married.

Was I wrong not having an abortion since Steve has a family?

C. N.

Dear C. N.:

No, you were absolutely right. The unhappy fact is, Steve is a fair weather friend and wants no part in taking responsibility for a second family.

But it takes two to make a baby, so he should help support it. Tell him that unless he is willing to make a satisfactory financial arrangement for the baby (and put it on paper), you will see a lawyer.

Dear Jan:

I am 15 and in love with two boys.

The problem is that one of them is my ex-boyfriend. He just came to the city. We went together before he moved north; now he wants us to go back together.

But I have another boyfriend and I don't want to hurt him. I guess I love them both.

My mother seems to like the ex-boyfriend better since she has known him longer.

What should I do?

Acler

Dear Acler:

Actually, the kindest thing is to tell your ex-boyfriend the truth. It seems to me that you don't waste much time finding a new boyfriend, so evidently you didn't love the old one as much as you thought.
