AREA OBITUARIES

Danielle M. Whitlock

Danielle M. Whitlock, daughter of Harlene and the late Wayne Whitlock, was born May 23, 1970, in Baltimore, Md. Ms. Whitlock died on June 22, 1989, after a long period of illness.

Danielle was educated in the Baltimore City public school system. She attended Forest Park Senior High School. In spite of her illness she continued her educational endeavors at the University of Maryland, Eastern Shore, with vigor and determination.

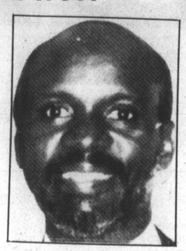
Danielle, affectionately known to her multitude of friends as "Bunt," was a devoted and loyal friend. She believed that nothing was too much to do for a friend.

During her period of illness, Bunt continued to give love to all those around her and had little time to think of herself. She will truly be missed by all who are counted among her friends. She believed that it was love that lifted her to the arms of Christ.

Danielle started her Christian walk in April 1988, and joined the First United Church of Jesus Christ (Apostolic), under the pastorship of Bishop Monroe R. Saunders. Although Danielle's illness prevented her from frequently attending church, she remained a faithful warrior and lover of the gospel.

She is survived by her mother, Harlene Whitlock; grandparents, Julia Mae Summerville, Harry Summerville and Jessie Whitlock; three brothers, Shawn, Wayne and Julian; eight uncles; six aunts; two godmothers, Lois Freeman and Shirleen Davis; one very special god-aunt, Lucy Mae Williams; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Robert R. West



Robert Rutherford West, son of the late Genevieve and Robert Rutherford, was born on December 18, 1938 in Baltimore, Maryland. Mr. West died on June 19, 1989.

He attended the Baltimore Public Schools. At an early age, Bobby, as he was affectionately called was converted and baptized in the Simmons Memorial Baptist Church. Periodically he attended the Brown's Memorial Baptist Church.

At the age of 15, Bobby was taught to sew and tailoring became his life profession. At the time of his death he was employed at Gage Clothes.

Bobby met and married his childhood sweetheart, the former Barbara Jean Jones. He was an avid lover of music and avid sports fan. He was a member of his beloved Sphinx Club and the NAACP. Bobby was well read on all subjects. He was dearly loved by all.

He leaves to mourn: a devoted wife, Barbara; three daughters, Patricia, Jacqueline and Tifini; two sons, Robert Elliott and Robert Rutherford; one grandson, Mickal; two brothers-in-law, Walter and Jerome; mother-in-law, Elizabeth Goins; father-in-law, George; two sisters-in-law, Debra and Jacqueline; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Geneva C. Hillery

Mrs. Geneva Carter Hillery, the daughter of the late Henry Carter and the late Eva Gaskins was born on December 28, 1909, in Northumberland County, Va. Mrs. Hillery died on June 5, 1989, at her home in Baltimore, Md.

Elementary education was received at the Rosenwald School in Northumberland, Virginia. She attended Junior High School and Senior High night classes in Baltimore City and was a graduate of the Carver Vocational Adult Night School.

Spiritually nurtured at an early age in the Galilee Methodist Church of Northumberland County, Mrs. Hillery remained true to her first love, the church. This was reflected in her associations and support of many area churches, as well as her own Pennsylvania Avenue A.M.E. Zion Church. There she served as a member of Gospel Chorus No. 2 for many years, as a Conference Worker, as President of the Loyal Sons and Daughters and organized The Women Chorus.

Mrs. Hillery's community leadership included the Harlem Park Executive, Health and Welfare and Home-Neighborhood Conservation Committees, summer camp programs, Mayor's Performing Arts Committee, Enoch Pratt Library Community Advisory Board, Youth Clubs, Bon Secours Volunteer Program, the Citizens Democratic Action Organization, board member of the Fayette House and the Harlem Park Community Coalition.

Additionally she participated in studies on concerns of the elderly and political or educational issues impacting on the life of the neighborhoods.

Geneva Hillery was the wife of the late Charles Milton Hillery who preceded her in death. Of this union were born 13 children, eight girls and five boys.

She leaves to mourn four sons, Charles, Walter, Milton and Montell; seven daughters, Rose Jones, Bernice Brooks, Irene Burrell, Geneva Walker, Grace Lambert, June Levi and Franzetta Tunstall; niece, Elaine Webster; 34 grandchildren; 42 great grandchildren and two great, great grandchildren; two sons-in-law; two daughters-in-law; one brother, Charles Carter; two sisters, Alice Dates and Viola Bradley; one brother-in-law; one sister-in-law; nieces, nephews, cousins; and a host of other relatives and friends.

Witnesses hold world conference

Hundreds of Baltimore area Jehovah's Witnesses were among the more than 15 thousand delegates who attended the "Godly Devotion" District Convention of Jehovah's Witnesses at the Capital Centre in Landover, Maryland near Washington, D.C.

The convention was held this past weekend and was one of 133 such conventions being held this summer in the United States. An estimated 1,360,000 delegates are expected to attend.

George Gentry, an Elder in the Mondawmin Congregation, said that those in attendance received Bible-based instruction on family life, remaining morally clean in a degenerate world, and how to be effective in the door-to-door ministry.

On Saturday, 139 new Jehovah's Witnesses were baptized in a portable pool in the Capital Centre.

One of the convention highlights was an address delivered by Ralph Walls, a member of the World Headquarters of Jehovah's Witnesses in New York. Walls's lecture, titled: "Questions—Answers That Work," was primarily directed to youths who are under tremendous pressure from outside the family, subsequently bringing pressure inside the family.

Walls released a new 320-page book, "Questions Young People Ask—Answers That Work." Walls pointed out "while the material has been written primarily with youths among Jehovah's Witnesses in mind, it can be read and enjoyed by anyone who has respect for the practical wisdom contained in the Bible."

Walls stated, "We are anxious to go through this timely information as a family and as a congregation to help any young people in today's dangerous world."
