GIANT Rx Discount DRUG

SAFETY & RELIABILITY

"We recently had a customer who was prescribed Lanoxin® by her cardiologist to maintain normal heart rhythms. The dosage was one tablet before breakfast. However, her internist had previously prescribed an antacid to take before meals. The PROFILE System alerted us that an interaction between these two drugs decreases the absorption of Lanoxin® which could lead to abnormal heart rhythms. Both doctors were called and the dosage schedules were changed.

ONE YEAR LATER:

The vision continues at Mt. Lebanon

Sunday, July 23, 1989, the Rev. Olin P. Moyd, Ph.D., and the congregation of the Mt. Lebanon Baptist Church celebrated the culmination of a year of dedication in their new edifice.

One year ago, July 24, 1988, the Mount Lebanon Family marched into the new edifice.

This was a grand experience with marching bands and over 300 members, friends and dignitaries marching up Reisterstown Rd. with Pastor Moyd leading the way from the previous church, 2320 Reisterstown Rd. to the new church at 2812 Reisterstown Rd.

September 11, 1988, the church held its first baptism in the new edifice, baptizing 21 new members. The baptismal pool is located above the pulpit.

No matter where persons sit in the 900 capacity sanctuary, they may remain seated and watch the baptism.

A two-week celebration of praise and thanksgiving was held September 19-30. Various churches from around the city took part in this celebration.

A dedication day was held on Oct. 2. During the 11 a.m. service, the Rev. Leroy Bowman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Annapolis, MD and past president of The United Baptist Missionary Convention, delivered the dedication sermon.

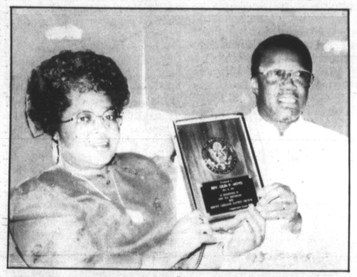
At 3 p.m. on this same day, the Rev. Vernon Dobson, pastor of the Union Baptist Church, delivered another dedication sermon.

November 16, 1988, a Dedication Banquet was held at the Forum featuring the Rev. Dr. Benjamin Hooks as the speaker. Of course, this was one of the grand events of the year.

Another grand event took place on July 16, 1989, when the Mount Lebanon family's pastor, Dr. Moyd, celebrated his 25th Pastoral Anniversary with another banquet. Dr. Harold A. Carter, pastor of New Shiloh Baptist Church, was the guest speaker.

One year later, July 23, the vision continued with Pastor Moyd and the congregation again marching two blocks up Reisterstown Road accompanied by a band.

THE NEW HOME OF MT. LEBANON BAPTIST CHURCH



MT. LEBANON BAPTIST CHURCH PASTOR — Olin P. Moyd and Mrs. Moyd receive a plaque commemorating 25 years of community service from Congressman Kweisi Mfume.

The 9 a.m. program consisted of a ceremony of dedication for the church name lettering which has been installed and the steeple which is to be installed.

Hon. Clarence Blount was the speaker of the hour. Sen. Blount, who has been very helpful in making this miracle possible, delivered a very inspiring message.

Other dignitaries who joined in this ceremony were Sheila Dixon - Smith, Councilwoman, Del. Samuel M. Parham, and Marshall Pittman, ombudsman for Sen. Blount.

Rev. Olin Moyd rendered a prayer of thanksgiving to close the ceremony with an ascension of 500 balloons.

The Mount Lebanon Family then assembled at 11 a.m. for a special worship service.

This service was special because each member of the Mt. Lebanon Family was given special invitations for their family and friends.

Over 150 visitors responded. Included on the visitors log were names such as Barbara Jackson, Supervisor of the Board of Elections and Horace Holmes, WMAR-TV Channel 2 and many more.

Pastor Moyd preached the sermon entitled "This is the Day." Seven souls responded to the invitation to unite with the Mount Lebanon family.

Everyone who attended this day of celebration received a gift of a silver address book with a sketch of the new edifice and the Mount Lebanon "Growing People of God" logo.

This was a grand day for the Mt. Lebanon family. Both this year's and last year's celebration was planned by the Marketing Ministry of the church. This ministry is headed by Fletcher Jackson, who is assisted by Vanessa Booker.

Mount Lebanon Baptist Church has stated that the new edifice will be a sanctuary for worship but it will also be a community building open to the community for its use, serving as an outreach center hoping to win many souls for Christ.

"One Year Later: The Vision Continues." Sunday, Rev. Moyd stated that the next vision to pursue is that of a major ministry to those who are "Parenting Without Partners." The vision has been captured and now the work will begin.

A WORD OF HOPE

By Maxine L. Wallace

"Cause me to hear thy loving kindness in the morning; for in Thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I shall walk; for I lift up my soul unto Thee." Psalm 143:8

My friend, you are loved . . . oh, how Jesus loves you. He is intimately acquainted with all of your ways and He knows your thoughts from afar. God knows everything there is to know about you; for you are His love creation . . . made in His very image . . . you are the apple of His eye . . . And oh, how beautiful you are.

And so it is that God has called you out of darkness and into His marvelous light. And yes . . . He is calling you to a closer walk with Him. It is His will that you grow in a deeper love relationship with Him . . . It is His desire that you come to know Him in a more personal and a more intimate way.

Yet, if we are to know our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ, in a more intimate way, certainly we must draw nigh unto Him . . . we must be determined to stay in this Christian race . . . we must seek to know Him . . . to hear Him . . . and to love Him with our whole heart, our whole mind, and our whole life.

Early in the morning will I seek thee, oh Lord.

Early in the morning, my praise shall rise to thee; For thou art a holy and magnificent God. Thou art a righteous and mighty God . . . You are my rock and my fortress . . . my refuge . . . my God . . . in you will I trust.

Oh, Lord, cause me to hear thy loving kindness in the morning. Cause me to hear sweetness of your voice in the midst of the bitterness of trials and tribulations . . . cause me to hear the tenderness of thy mercies . . . cause me to hear thy voice, oh Lord.

The Lord is full of mercy . . . His loving kindness extends from generation to generation. Just allow the Lord to minister unto you even now . . . just experience His love, and His peace, and His joy right now. Yes, He is surrounding you even now with his love . . . his kindness extended toward you in a personal delight. Trust the Lord Jesus just now to fill every empty place in your life . . . to bind up every wound . . . to heal every hurt . . . just rest in Him . . . God cares for you.

Is it your desire to know the way wherein you should walk? Well . . . the Bible says the footsteps of a good man are ordered by the Lord . . . In all thy ways, acknowledge the Lord, and He shall direct thy path.

The Lord will lead you into all truth . . . he will led you in His path of holiness and peace. He will lead you in His path of goodness and mercy.

Beloved, to know God is to love Him. The Bible says, for I lift up my soul unto thee. Oh Lord, I will bless you with everything within me . . . I surrender all to thee, oh Lord, my God and King. My Jesus, how I love thee. . . .
