Filed. April. 20. 1854.

The Petition of Daniel Palmer, Peter Gover, John Gover Nathan A. Neighbors, Charles Broadrup, John T. Neighbors, Joseph Crouse & Hugh Mullen & Jacob Staley, administrators of George F. Staley, deceased represents to the Court - That since the sales in this case made & Reported both of the Trustees - named in this cause have deceased & that it becomes necessary for this Court to appoint some New Trustee to execute Conveyances to the several purchasers. That all the monies have been paid by the said Several purchasers, except the said George F. Staley dec. and that a Bill has been filed, and the Lands by him in this cause - purchased - have been sold by said Jacob, as his Trustee, for that purpose, appointed by a Decree of this court, your petitioners further shew, that said Hugh & Jacob, as administrators of said George, the deceased Trustee, have paid, and satisfied, to all the heirs & distributees in this cause, the Balances due in the audit, and they therefore pray this Court to appoint a new Trustee, to make the Deeds to the said several purchasers, and they recommend said Jacob Staley as a fit person, and he being also Trustee
