Exhibit No. 5.

At the request of C. A. Cramer the following deed of trust was recorded August 27th 1861.

This Deed made this 27th day of August in the year Eighteen Hundred and sixty one, by me George Link of the County of Frederick in the State of Maryland, Witnesseth that whereas the said George Link is indebted to sundry persons, and is desirous that the whole of his property shall be applied to the payment of his debts, therefore in consideration of the premises the said George Link doth hereby grant, assigns, transfer and make over unto Columbus A. Cramer, all his the said George Link's property of every description, including his distributive share of the estate of his Grandfather Moses Grabill, in trust, to convert the same into cash as speedily as possible, and to apply the proceeds, first to the payment of the expenses of the execution of this trust, including the cost of preparing this deed and all necessary counsel fees; then to the payment to said trustee of a commission of seven per cent for his care and trouble herein, then to the payment to said C. A. Cramer of four promissory notes or single bills for the principal sum of three hundred and seventy five dollars with interest thereon, and then, the residue to be applied to the full payment, if sufficient for that purpose but if not sufficient for that purpose, then to the pro-rata payment of all debts due and owing, by said George Link, and should there be any surplus, after the full payment of all the debts due and owing by said George Link, then in trust to pay said surplus to said George Link, his executors administrators or assigns. Witness my hand and seal.
