

the manner therein prescribed, or in the manner allowed, in relation to other records of his office and in his presence or in the presence of his deputy.

Sec. 21. Be it enacted, That the Judges of Election may exclude from voting any person whose name may appear on the list or register of voters if of their own knowledge or on the testimony of disinterested witnesses, who are legal voters, they shall be satisfied that such person is not a legal voter according to the provisions of the first Article of the Constitution or Laws of the State, and in case of any such rejection they shall notify the officers or officer of registration within ten days thereafter furnishing with the name or names of the person or persons on whose testimony such vote was rejected, and the Judges of Elections shall have and exercise all the powers and duties heretofore held and exercised by them not in conflict with the Constitution, or the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 22. Be it enacted, That if any officer of registration shall knowingly, corruptly and fraudently in violation of the provisions of Article first of the Constitution or of this Act, permit the name of any disqualified person to be entered on the list or register of qualified voters, or exclude therefrom the name of any qualified voter, he shall upon conviction thereof forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars for each offence, and shall be disqualified from holding any office of honor, profit or trust and from exercising the elective franchise in this State.

Sec. 23. Be it enacted, That if any Clerk of any court with whom the books and lists herein provided are required to be deposited, shall violate any of the provisions of this Act or make any alterations in said books or lists, or suffer the same to be done by others, except as herein provided for, or shall neglect any of the duties herein imposed on him, he shall on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, and be thereafter disqualified from voting or holding any other office of honor, profit or trust.

Sec. 24. Be it enacted, That if any Judge of Election shall violate any of the provisions of this Act, or of the first Article of the Constitution, relating to the elective franchise, he shall on conviction thereof forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred, nor more than five hundred dollars, and shall be disqualified from holding office and voting.

Sec. 25. Be it enacted, That any person taking the oath herein required, or swearing falsely in relation to matters connected therewith, shall on conviction thereof, be deemed guilty of perjury, and shall be sentenced to the Penitentiary for not less than one nor more than eight years, and be disqualified from voting and holding office.