as well as all the parties concerned in the sale of said real estate our reason for the foregoing conclusion is that the property is now in a dilapidated state and must necessarily become entirely destroyed unless considerably repaired, shortly secondly in our opinion the property per a short time will bring but a trifle beside they yrs are none residents of this State - We have therefore thus concluded & beg leave to offer this as our report.

In testimony whereof we have hereunto set our hands this 13th day of February A D 1858
