thereof became necessary to have a trustee appointed by this Honorable Court to execute the power given by said will and to sell the said House and Lot — and personal property and to distribute the proceeds of sale amongst the parties entitled under the direction of this Honorable Court Your Orator further charges — that the said I. R. Harry in his lifetime sold and conveyed the lot or parcel of ground specified in said will as containing 2¾ acres of land more or less which the testator had purchased of John Geager of L but as to the exact time the said land was sold and the precise sum it sold for he cant state but that it was sold to a man by the name of James Fig of said County and your Orator charges that the said I. R. Harry has never in his lifetime in any way accounted for the proceeds of the sale thereof or for the interest or for any part of or interest but that he has applied the same to his own use for which sum your orator claims an account together with all other moneys in the hands of the said I. R. Harry. Your Orator further shows unto your Honor that the said I. R. Harry in his lifetime in due form of law made and executed his testament and last will and died leaving the same unrevoked and that in and by said testament and last will George H. Johnson was made the executor who after the death of said testator accepted the trust reposed in him by said will a true and certified copy of said will is here exhibited marked Exhibit B. Your Orator further states that the said I. R. Harry died leaving Elizabeth Harry his widow and two infant children namely Clara Harry & Charles Alfred Harry who reside at Graham in said County of Frederick & your Orator further states that she and the said Charles Maicke are the grand children of the said Isaac R. Harry the testator and that the said Charles Maicke resides in parts unknown to your Orator out of the state of Maryland and he is a non resident &c

Exhibit A

In tender consideration whereof and for that your orator is remediless in the premises by the strict rules of the common law and relievable only in a Court of Equity where matters of this nature are properly cognizable. To the end therefore that the