has long ago been paid to said Trustee so that the said Frederick A Schley at the time of his death was entitled to claim a conveyance therefor and your orators further charge that the said Frederick A Schley also left a piece or parcel of land situate in Frederick City lying between the income north of the Presbyterian Church and of equal width with the lot whereon the said Church building is situate and third street in said City on the North and in which he had an equitable title or claim in fee under and by virtue of a contract for the purchase money thereof by the said Frederick A Schley and the trustees of the Presbyterian Church aforesaid for a sum of money which your orators charge was fully paid by the said Frederick A Schley in his life time to the said Trustees so that he was at the time of his death entitled to claim a conveyance therefor. And your orators further charge that among other real estate the said Frederick A Schley left the two pieces or parcels of land described in Exhibit No 8 in which he had an equitable title or claim in fee under and by virtue of a contract of purchase thereof by the said intestate of a certain William Ott trustee in No 2634 Equity in the Circuit Court for Frederick County for a sum of money specified in the said trustees Report in said Cause but they have been informed that a part of the purchase money therefor yet remains unpaid upon the payment whereof the heirs of said intestate will be entitled to a conveyance therefor your orators further charge that the said William Ott resigned said trust and the Honorable Court appointed a certain Thomas Pickering trustee in his stead copies of which proceedings will be produced when required and your orators further charge that the said Real Estate is susceptible of partition amongst the parties aforesaid and that if it cannot be divided between them with advantage to all the parties then that your orators will be entitled to have the same sold and the proceeds distributed amongst the parties in proportion to their respective interests. To the end therefore that the said William Henry Schley and Buchanan Schley and the defendants hereinafter named may answer the several matters and things hereinbefore set forth as fully and particularly as if the same were herein repeated and they were thereunto interrogated and that the said William Schley may discover whether he did not contract with the said Frederick A Schley in his life time to sell unto him the moiety of the piece or parcel
