[illegible] Court of Chancery for the County of Kent sitting as a Court of Equity in the cause therein depending wherein it was ordered that the bill of complaint in the said cause should be dismissed with costs to be taxed and that the complainant should pay the costs of the defendants to be taxed and that the complainant should be at liberty to apply to the said Court for an order for the sale of the Estate in the said bill mentioned and that the Master should be at liberty to advertise the said Estate for sale in such manner as he should think fit and that the Master should be at liberty to accept the highest bidder for the purchase thereof and that the said Estate should be sold subject to the payment of the purchase money into Court and that the Master should be at liberty to allow a reasonable time for the purchaser to pay his purchase money and that the said Estate should be sold free from all incumbrances and that the purchaser should be let into possession of the said Estate on the day of sale and that the purchaser should be at liberty to apply to the said Court in the event of any difficulty or dispute arising in the matter of the said sale and that the said Estate should be sold by the Master as follows to wit [illegible] the said Estate at the Black Bull Inn [illegible] on the [illegible] day of [illegible] between the hours of [illegible] and [illegible] o'clock in the forenoon of the same day [illegible] the said Estate should be sold in one lot or in two lots at the option of the purchaser and that the said Estate should be sold subject to the payment of the purchase money in two equal moieties the first moiety thereof to be paid on the day of sale and the second moiety thereof with interest thereon at the rate of [illegible] per cent per annum on the [illegible] day of [illegible] next and that the purchaser should be at liberty to pay the purchase money or any part thereof on any day after the day of sale on giving [illegible] days notice in writing to the Master of his intention so to do and that the said Estate should be sold free from all incumbrances and that the purchaser should be let into possession of the said Estate on the day of sale and that the purchaser should be at liberty to apply to the said Court in the event of any difficulty or dispute arising in the matter of the said sale and that the said Estate should be sold by the Master as follows to wit [illegible] the said Estate at the Black Bull Inn [illegible] on the [illegible] day of [illegible] between the hours of [illegible] and [illegible] o'clock in the forenoon of the same day [illegible] the said Estate should be sold in one lot or in two lots at the option of the purchaser and that the said Estate should be sold subject to the payment of the purchase money into Court