[illegible] of Cattaraugus County and State of New York, that the said Joseph E. Wright on the 26th day of October 1853 executed and delivered to the said complainant Cornelius Van Rensselaer his promissory note for the sum of [illegible] hundred and [illegible] dollars payable one year after date, the second one year after date, the third one year after date, the fourth one year after date, with interest from date for the purpose of securing the payment of the said notes as they severally became due, and to secure the 16th day of February 1854 the said Joseph E. Wright executed and delivered to the said complainant a certain mortgage upon certain real estate lying and being in the city of Buffalo, County and State aforesaid, described in said mortgage, which said mortgage was duly recorded in the Clerk's office of said County of Erie, in Liber [illegible] of Mortgages, page [illegible] and the said complainant further states that the said Joseph E. Wright executed and delivered to the said complainant his promissory note for the sum of fifteen hundred and forty three dollars and [illegible] cents payable one year after date, which said note was duly presented for payment at the Exchange Bank of Hydeville, where said note is payable, and payment of it being duly demanded, and the same dishonored, and they finally became due and payable, all of which will fully appear by reference to the said mortgage and the said note, which are annexed, marked Exhibit No 2 and 3 of complainants bill of complaint, and which are to be taken as part of this bill of complaint. Complainants further state that the said Joseph E. Wright, and his wife, executed and delivered to the said complainant their