their knowledge or remembrance of any thing that may be material in said cause agreeable and pursuant to Cause notice to be given to the adverse or their attorneys of the execution of this commission before the Commissioner to execute the same and have requested the depositions of the witnesses so taken by you left with you and the same with this Commission also under your hand and seal to the Court as a record of Court and all concerning the premises. Witness the Honorable Richard Wise Judge of our said Circuit Court this fourteenth day of February A.D. 1860 since the 13th day of February 1860.

W. H. Whitfield Clerk

James McCampbell &
Lucas Remington vs
Charles E. Morley and John W. Ross

} Cause No. 2881 Circuit Court of the Eighteenth Judicial Circuit of Cook County and State of Illinois

Interrogatories to be left with the Clerk to be propounded to witnesses to be produced on the part of the Complainant and first interrogatories to be answered and propounded with the particulars of this cause to the witness Lea Fox being first duly sworn.

Second interrogatories to be propounded by the parties Complainant to the witness Lea Fox.

First Do you know the handwriting of the signature that purports to be the handwriting of either of the firm of Lea McLeod & Co. to the paper marked Exhibit No 2 in said the deposition of Lea Fox and the signature to the Defendants State full, are you familiar with the handwriting of the Defendants State full, are you familiar with the handwriting of the Defendants State full, are you acquainted with the handwriting of the Defendants State full, are you acquainted with the handwriting of the Defendants State full, are you acquainted