

excess contributions returnable to the member in cash or as an annuity of equivalent actuarial value. The accumulated contributions of the member withdrawn by him, or paid to his estate or to his designated beneficiary in event of his death as provided in this subtitle, shall be paid from the Annuity Savings Fund. Upon the retirement of a member his accumulated contributions shall be transferred from the Annuity Savings Fund to the Accumulation Fund.

122.

All of the assets of this pension system shall be credited, according to the purpose for which they are held, to the following funds:

- (i) The Annuity Savings Fund;
- (ii) The Accumulation Fund; and
- (iii) The Expense Fund.

(1) (d) Subject to the approval of the board of trustees, in addition to the contributions deducted from earnable compensation as provided in this section, any member may deposit therein by single payment or by an increased rate of contribution an amount computed to be sufficient to purchase an additional annuity which, together with his prospective retirement allowance, will provide for him a total retirement allowance not in excess of two thirds of his average final compensation at the age of 62. [In addition to the contributions provided for in this section, subject to the conditions established by the board of trustees, any eligible member, in accordance with a contract with his employer, may have further contributions at a fixed percentage of 2 percent or more, but not to exceed 20 percent of his compensation made on his account, either by a reduction in his salary or instead of an increase in his compensation. The cost of administering annuities that qualify under § 403(b) of the Internal Revenue Code as amended from time to time, shall be provided from the funds invested in these annuities.] These additional amounts so deposited shall become a part of his accumulated contributions except in the case of retirement, when they shall be treated as excess contributions returnable to the member in cash or as an annuity of equivalent actuarial value.
