I recognize as true statements made by me in my own hand writing of transactions with my mother as they purport on their face to be. The further taking of testimony was then postponed until the 27th of January 1860 - At which time neither of the parties having appeared in person or by Solicitor the further taking of testimony was again postponed until the 30th of January 1860 at which time last above mentioned the Solicitors for the respective parties being present the further taking of testimony was resumed by Eugenia Pitzhugh being recalled desired to explain his previous testimony which he proceeded to do as follows. On the 18th of this month there certain papers of mine mislaid and not seen by me for more than a year were presented to me for explanation by the Solicitor for Jacob M. Kunkel I could not recollect the transactions therein contained, and gave a somewhat confused statement, I now state that to the best of my recollection the settlement between Sophia Pitzhugh and myself on the 1st of August 1858 is correct as to the other papers memoranda of papers etc I will endeavour to give to the best of my recollection the following explanation In June 1857 I obtained money for other purposes as well as to lift a note of mine payable to the order of Sophia Pitzhugh for $500. in the hands of Thompson Ondeslunge of Baltimore and of $1000. signed by me payable to the order of Mrs Sophia Pitzhugh at the Farmers & Mechanics Bank of Frederick Deputy the said Bank agreeing to take a payment of $500. therein and a renewal of $500 similarly signed and indorsed. I applied to Sophia Pitzhugh for assistance in obtaining money. I explained to her fully the nature of these matters and asked her to allow me to pledge the note then held by her of said Kunkel for $5000 to obtain money on it as collateral - She consented to do so upon the condition that I should use so much of the proceeds of the money thus obtained as her money to take up said note held by Thompson & Ondeslunge and by the Farmers & Mechanics Bank to be held by her as paid with her money as a guarantee that the said note of Jacob M. Kunkel should be returned to her. I accordingly went to Baltimore with said Kunkel's note and pledged it to John Hopkins as collateral to indemnify him against any loss on account on a note of mine for $3000, which was discounted at the Merchants Bank of Baltimore, according to the agreement before mentioned with Sophia Pitzhugh. I took up as with her money the note in the hands of Thompson & Ondeslunge and also the note of $1000 at the Farmers & Mechanics Bank of Frederick County by paying $500. on the same and giving a note similarly signed & indorsed for the balance. On my return to Catoctin I handed these notes as agreed upon between Sophia Pitzhugh and myself to her
