Copy "Exhibit C" being part of "Bloomsbury" & part of "Wayman's Retreat"

At the request of Lewis M. and Henry M. Rizdaff, Executors for the sale of the Real estate of Henry Rizdaff, late of Frederick County, deceased, I have carefully surveyed in one general outline part of a tract of land called "Bloomsbury" and part of a tract called "Wayman's Retreat", and have divided the same in three lots as follows.

Lot A. Beginning at a chestnut tree marked with 12 notches, it being the end of the 1st line in No 19 W 54¾ pr. line of Lot No 2 deeded by a certain John H. Simmons, to the late Benjamin Dudderar, now the property of D. Hughes, and running thence with said Lot No 2, true courses and distances, correcting for the Magnetic variation viz: N 41½° E 60 pr. to a stake and pile of stones, S 70° E 14 pr. to a stake and pile of stones at the end of the 1st in S 14½° W 78¼ pr. line of the part of the aforesaid tract of land called "Wayman's
