

(b) The city or county shall provide a suitable office for the local inspector and shall provide for the necessary clerical services, supplies, and transportation. The city or county shall defray the contingent expenses incident to the official activities of the local inspector in carrying out the provisions of this title.]

[11-203.

Notwithstanding any provision of this title, a county and any city located in it which may appoint a local inspector may establish a joint county-city weights and measures jurisdiction under an agreement between the governing body of the county and the governing body of the city, with one local inspector and secondary standards and equipment. If a joint county-city jurisdiction is established, the provisions of this title relating to the appointment of local inspectors shall be applicable except that in every case joint action of the county and the city forming the joint jurisdiction shall be required. A local inspector and deputy local inspectors, appointed pursuant to the provisions of this section, shall have the same powers and duties as though appointed separately by the county or city forming the joint jurisdiction.]

[11-205.] 11-202.

[(a)] The Secretary shall:

(1) Have custody of the State primary standards of weights and measures and of the other standards and equipment provided for by this subtitle;

(2) Keep accurate records of the standards and equipment;

(3) Supervise the weights and measures offered for sale, sold, or used in the State; and

(4) Submit a report of all the activities of his office during the previous fiscal year to the Governor and Legislative Policy Committee by September 30.

[(b) In any city or county where a local inspector is permitted by this subtitle, the Chief of Weights and Measures has concurrent authority to enforce the provisions of this title.]

[11-206.

(a) Unless otherwise provided, the local inspector of a city or county and a deputy local inspector, when acting under his instructions and at his direction, has the same powers and shall perform the same duties within the city or county where he is appointed as are granted to and imposed upon the Secretary by §§ 11-209, 11-211, 11-212, 11-214, 11-215, and 11-216. However,
