Your Petitioner would further show, that at the time of said sale, he also sold the Bank Stock of said J. L. McLean consisting of twenty shares of the Capital Stock of the First National Bank of Frederick, and sold the same at public sale for the gross sum of Twenty-Six hundred and fifty six and 45/100 dollars; And also at the same time and place Sold the Turnpike Stock of said J. L. McLean, consisting of five shares of stock of the Frederick and Catoctin Mountain Road Company, at and for the gross sum of Forty and 50/100 Dollars; that he sold all of said Stock for Cash —

Your Petitioner would further report that he has collected from Daniel S. Kemp, upon a Mortgage held by said McLean upon said Kemp's property, the sum of six hundred dollars, that he has collected as rent on the real estate of said McLean the sum of thirty dollars; And as Bank Stock dividends, the sum of Forty three & 6/100 Dollars. —

Your Petitioner would further show that prior to the execution of said deed of trust, five several attachments were laid upon the said Bank Stock of said J. L. McLean and which said Attachments, your Petitioner was advised, created a lien upon said Bank Stock, And your Petitioner believing said Bank Stock would sell more advantageously by being freed from all incumbrances, paid of said liens, and which amounted in the aggregate to the sum of Ninety three and 46/100 dollars, as appears by the receipts of Jos. F. Payne and Wm. F. Buesing Constables, filed herewith, marked Vouchers "J. F. P." And "W. F. B.". —

Your Petitioner would further state that the Creditors of said J. L. McLean are very numerous, and unknown to your Petitioner, And your Petitioner is unable to execute his said trust without the Aid and protection of your Honorable Court, which he now invokes, and prays your Honors to ratify and confirm his said sales and approve of his proceedings herein reported, and may it further please your Honors to refer the case to the Auditor to state an account between your Petitioner and the Creditors of said J. L. McLean who were such prior to said 6th day of December 1870, after having first given the usual notice to the Creditors of said J. L. McLean, to file their claims duly proved in your Honorable Court.

And may your Petitioner have such other and further relief as the nature of the case may require, And to your Honors shall seem meet. — And your Petitioner will ever pray &c
