

(ii) Satisfactory evidence of compliance with the performance bond and contractor's liability insurance requirements of the Board; and

(iii) Satisfactory evidence of compliance with any continuing education requirement established under this subtitle for license renewal, except licensees designated as apprentice licensees A and B by the Board.

(d) (1) Beginning July 1, 1985, within the annual license renewal period, each licensee shall comply with the continuing education requirements of this section as a precondition for the renewal of that license. These requirements do not apply to apprentice licensees A and B.

(2) A licensee shall complete 10 hours of approved continuing education instruction covering well drilling subject matter approved by the Board.

(3) (i) The Board shall approve the substance and form of each continuing education course, if the course is:

1. Offered by qualified instructors experienced in the well drilling industry and approved by the Board; or

2. Conducted by educational institutions approved by the Board.

(ii) The licensee is responsible for the cost of any continuing education course.

(4) The Board may waive the requirements of this subsection if a person can show just cause why that person is not able to meet the requirements.

(e) The Board may not require a licensee who applies for a renewal of the license to take an examination.

(f) The Board shall renew the license of each licensee who meets the requirements of this section.

[21-309] 13-309.

(a) In accordance with its rules and regulations, the Board may issue a temporary license in any license class.

(b) To apply for a temporary license, an applicant shall meet the requirements of § [21-303] 13-303 of this subtitle.

(c) Except as otherwise provided in this title, to qualify for a temporary license, an applicant shall meet any reasonable
