

qualifications or requirements that the Board establishes under this subtitle.

(d) The Board shall issue an appropriate temporary license to any applicant who:

- (1) Meets the requirements of this title; and
- (2) Pays the required fee.

(e) A temporary license expires at the first to occur of the following:

(1) When the Board issues or refuses to issue a license under § 21-306 of this subtitle; or

(2) On the expiration date that the Board designates on the temporary license.

[21-310] 13-310.

(a) Subject to the hearing provisions of § [21-311] 13-311 of this subtitle, the Board shall suspend or revoke a license if the licensee:

(1) Fraudulently or deceptively obtains or attempts to obtain a license for the licensee or for another;

(2) Fraudulently or deceptively uses a license; or

(3) Is guilty of gross negligence, incompetence, or misconduct while practicing well drilling.

(b) Subject to the hearing provisions of § [21-311] 13-311 of this subtitle, the Board may deny a license to any applicant on any of the grounds specified in subsection (a) of this section.

(c) Subject to the hearing provisions of § [21-311] 13-311 of this subtitle, the Board may deny a license to any applicant; reprimand a licensee, or suspend or revoke a license if the Board finds that the applicant or licensee has violated any law, rule, or regulation that applies to practicing well drilling.

[21-311] 13-311.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in the Administrative Procedure Act, before the Board takes any action under § [21-310] 13-310 of this subtitle, it shall give the person against whom the action is contemplated an opportunity for a hearing before the Board.