

the extent that title to the energy project or projects shall not, at the time, then be vested in the person; and

(2) Release securities held as collateral by a trustee or trustees under the trust agreement or determination to the person, which had, under the trust agreement or determination, deposited and turned over the securities to a trustee or trustees in order to assure the full payment and retirement of the bonds, free and clear of all liens and encumbrances, all to the extent that title to the securities shall not, at the time, then be vested in the person.

[13-419.] 6-319.

(a) The Administration does not have the power of eminent domain.

(b) Nothing in this subtitle may be construed to alter or restrict the zoning or land use planning authority of any county, incorporated municipality or other public instrumentality of the State.

[13-420.] 6-320.

(a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subtitle the Administration shall make no new awards or commitments for financial assistance for energy projects after June 30, 1991.

(b) Upon the dissolution of the Administration or any successor to the Administration, title to all property owned by the Administration or any successor to the Administration shall vest in the State.

[13-421.] 6-321.

(a) The provisions of this subtitle are severable and if any of its provisions are held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of the court shall not affect or impair any of the remaining provisions.

(b) The provisions of this subtitle are supplemental and additional to the powers conferred by other laws and they are not in derogation of any power now existing.

[Article 78A - Public Works]

SUBTITLE 4. APPALACHIAN REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT ACT OF 1965

[13B.] 6-401.

(a) The Department [of Economic and Community Development] is authorized and empowered to coordinate and cooperate with the federal government or any agency or officer thereof to implement,