

(g) (1) For any week with respect to which the individual retires or is retired from employment by an employer and due to such retirement is receiving or has received an amount, calculated pursuant to paragraphs (i) and (ii), equal to or in excess of his weekly benefit amount [on] IN the form of a pension, annuity or retirement or retired pay, or any other similar periodic payment which is based on any previous insured work of the individual for a base period employer (but excluding payments from a state or federal workmen's compensation program) under a plan paid for in whole or in part by a base period employer. In the event that an employer pays a retirement benefit as described in this section due to a layoff or shutdown of operations, the benefit amount shall not be a bar to unemployment insurance benefits for the period of eligibility for unemployment insurance benefits. (i) The entire amount which an individual received or will receive with respect to a week in the form of a retirement payment from a base period employing unit for which he performed services and which pays all of the cost of such retirement payment, or from a trust, annuity, profit sharing plan, or insurance fund, or under an annuity or insurance contract, to or under which a base period employing unit for which he performed service pays or has paid all the premiums or contributions; and (ii) one half of the amount which an individual has received or will receive with respect to a week in the form of a retirement payment from a base period employing unit for which he performed services and which pays some, but not all, of the cost of such retirement, or from a trust, annuity, profit sharing plan, or insurance fund, or under an annuity or insurance contract, to or under which a base period employing unit for which he performed services pays or has paid some, but not all of the premiums or contributions.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Incorrect word usage in Article 95A, § 6(g)(1).

Occurred: In the printing of the 1987 Cumulative, Supplement to the 1985 Replacement Volume for Volume 8 of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

12.

(g) (3) Each employer, upon request by the Secretary, shall furnish a report of the separation from employment of every individual who leaves his or its employ. In addition, upon request by the Secretary, each employer shall furnish a report of earnings of any individual. A separate notice on forms or in a manner to be prescribed by the Secretary shall be returned to the Secretary not later than the end of the 4th business or working day following the day on which it is requested by the Secretary, but separation notices shall not be required in case of mass layoffs. Failure to file such separation notice or report of