to,

6th Int. William H Durlbin at the time of his death was seized and possessed of Real Estate in Frederick County Maryland, I look at "Exhibit No. 1" now here shown me, said Exhibit correctly describes the Real Estate of which the said William H Durlbin died seized and possessed.

to,

7th Int Said Real Estate is not susceptible of an advantageous division among the parties entitled thereto and cannot be divided without loss and injury because if divided the parcels would be too small to admit of advantageous cultivation or sale

to,

8th Int It would be for the benefit and advantage of all the parties interested that said Real Estate should be sold and the proceeds arising therefrom distributed amongst the parties entitled for the reasons heretofore stated, and because there are so many persons interested in said property which is depreciating all the time and the money arising from the sales would be worth more to the parties than the property in its present condition said Real Estate is worth from $3500. to $4000

to

9th. Int. I know nothing further
