to;

6th Int. William H Devilbiss at the time of his death was seized and possessed of Real Estate in Frederick County Maryland, I look at "Exhibit No 1" now here shown me, said Exhibit correctly describes the Real Estate of which the said William H Devilbiss died seized & possessed.

to;

7th Int. Said Real Estate is not susceptible of advantageous division amongst the parties interested & cannot be divided without loss and injury to the parties, it is a small tract and if divided the parcels would be too small for advantageous cultivation or sale.

to;

8th Int That it will be for the benefit and advantage of all parties interested adults as well as infants that said Real Estate should be sold and the proceeds thereof be distributed amongst the parties entitled for the reasons given in my answer to the last interrogatory and because said Real Estate is gradually depreciating in value, there are so many persons interested in it and the money would be worth more to the parties interested than the property in its present condition, said Real Estate is worth from $3500 to $4000
