10th Int. — He died intestate and without issue. He left possibly no Brother, He left a Sister Jeanette Catharine Hargate and a Father Hiram Hargate

11th Int. — Said Real Estate is not susceptible of an advantageous Division among the Parties Interested and it would be for the benefit and advantage of all Parties concerned adults as well as the infant, that said Real Estate should be sold and the Proceeds thereof distributed among the parties entitled because if divided the parcels would be too small for advantageous Cultivation or Sale.

12th Int. Jeanette Catharine Hargate is an infant under the age of twenty one years The rest are adults.

13th Int. It would be for the advantage of the infant Jeanette Catharine Hargate that said Real Estate should be sold and her portion of the Proceeds thereof be distributed to her for the reason assigned in my answer to the 11th Interrogatory
