four degrees East twenty six poles, South sixteen and a half degrees West, thirty four and eight tenths poles to a planted stone on the North East side of the old race, thence South one degree West nine poles to a ledge of rocks, thence leaving the outlines of the aforesaid deed from John Miller of H. and wife, to Daniel Keller, South eighty degrees West five poles to the West margin of Catoctin Creek and to the end of the South sixty three degrees East forty poles line of the second part described in the aforesaid deed from Isaac Michael Trustee of John Bowlus to John Miller of H. thence with said second parts reversed and upon the South side of Catoctin Creek, North sixty two degrees West forty poles, North sixty eight and a half degrees West eighteen poles, North seventy four degrees West thirty four poles, North eighty six degrees West, twenty two poles, ending on the east, thence North fifty five degrees West two and six tenths poles to the end of five and fifty five hundredths poles on the South thirty three and a half degrees West thirteen and three quarters poles line in the aforesaid deed from Isaac Bowlus and wife, to John Miller of H. thence with the outlines of said deed South thirty four and a half degrees West, eight and two tenth poles to the top of a rock on the South margin of Catoctin Creek, then South eighty one and a half degrees West, seven and six tenths poles, North eighty degrees West six poles, North forty four degrees West nineteen and seven tenths poles to a rock marked X being the beginning of the Deed from John Miller of H. and wife, to J. M. Snoke Snook for 11. a. 1 r. 30 p., dated about April 1866, thence with said deed reversed three courses and distances viz: North seven degrees East eight and four tenths poles ending in Catoctin Creek, thence up said Creek, North eleven and a half degrees West fourteen poles, North thirty two and a half degrees West eight poles, thence leaving the outlines of said deed, North seventy one degrees East three poles to the East bank of said Creek, thence North twenty nine degrees East twenty poles to a planted stone, South sixty nine degrees East nine poles to a planted stone North thirteen degrees East twenty nine poles to a planted stone, North fifty one degrees East eleven poles to a planted stone, North twenty two degrees East nine and six tenths poles to a planted stone against the post fence, thence along the fence East four and one quarter poles to a planted stone thence still with the fence North eighty degrees East thirty poles to a planted stone, thence leaving the fence, North eleven degrees, West thirty six poles to a planted stone, North eight degrees East fifteen and three quarters poles to intersect the first line in the aforesaid deed from Isaac Bowlus and wife, at the end of twenty two and three quarters poles, it being also on the north line of the whole tract called "The Forest" thence with said first line, South thirty one degrees East sixty five poles to a planted stone, thence North fifty five degrees East twenty six and four tenths poles to the end of the South fifty two and a quarter degrees West sixty and a half poles line of the first part described in the aforesaid deed from Isaac Michael, Trustee of John Bowlus to John Miller of H. thence with said line reversed North fifty three and a quarter degrees East sixty and a half poles to the beginning, containing One hundred and thirty three