interest & all up & I gave her a note for 643$.

6th C Int: On what debt was the interest due to which you refer?

Ans On the first note before the Mortgage was given. I don't recollect exactly the amount, but we squared it all up at the time the $2950.00 note & the 643$ were given

7th. C Int: Did you not have a settlement with Laura about April 1874?

Ans. No Sir.

8th C. Int. Did you have any interview with her in reference to your indebtedness to her. or in reference to credits for payments made to her in April 1874?

Ans: Not as I know of. I told her, as soon as I could make the money I would pay her. No Sir 9th C Int; Did you pay to Laura any moneys whatever, other than those you have testified to in chief, from April 1872, to this time?

Ans: No Sir.

10th. C. Int. Did you not pay to Laura, Since April 1872, $125?

Ans: No Sir

11th. C Int. Did you, or not, have public sale? If yea, state when & state terms as to credits given to purchasers?

Ans: Yes Sir, I have a public sale. That was on the 19th. March 1872. The terms of sale were ten months credit on all sums above $10.00 and all under $10.00 cash 12th C. Int. Did you transfer any of your sale notes to Laura C Mann?

Ans. Yes Sir, there were two that slipped my memory. one was John Sanner's note, & the other was Daniel B. Smeltzer's note 13th. C Int: For what were they transferred?

Ans. For interest due Laura C. Mann. The Smeltzer note was for 42$ & I cant tell you the exact amount of the Sanner note, but I think it was for $76.00 or 78$. I cant tell which 14th. C Int: Did you ever enter into any settlement with her in which the amount collected on the notes was accounted for & credit given to you?

Ans. No Sir.

15th. C Int: Look at "Exhibit P" & state, if you know, whose figures those are on the outside of the pencil lines, & whose those are on the inside of the pencil lines?

Ans: I look at "Exhibit P." now her shown me, I don't know anything about it, because I never saw that paper. I don't know whose any of the figures are. I never saw any of Laura C. Mann's figures to my recollection 16th C. Int Do you, or would you know your own figures after two years had elapsed since they were made?

Ans I couldn't swear to that because at this time I couldn't make figures that I could years ago. I am too nervous 17th C. Int; Will you say that the figures on the inside of the lines are not yours?

Ans: Yes Sir, I will say that. They are not mine

18th. C Int; Why then do you state, that you could not swear to your own figures?

Ans. Because I don't know whether I made such figures two years
