Ans: I don't remember what was due me_ It's hard for me to tell, but I think it was $358.25, as near as I can get at it, but I won't say positively

39th C. Int: Why was not that also embraced in the notes given 1st April 1872

Ans Because he said he wouldn't do it_ He said, he would pay me_ "just to let it be as it was"

40th C. Int. Why did you then give up the old notes until you were paid?

Ans: He asked me for them & I thought it was right to give them to him_ I didn't know any better

To Re-direct Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Complainant & herewith returned, the said Laura C. Main deposes and says to the, 1st R.D. Int: Had you, or not, kept any account or memorandum of payments made you by Lawson?

Ans: Yes Sir

2d R.D. Int. From what date did you make out the statement, credits & calculations contained in "Exhibit P."?

Ans: From the account that I kept of my dealings with Lawson, which I showed to him when we settled in April 1874, and he told me to throw it away

3d R.D Int. What did you do with that paper?

Ans. I burned it

Whereupon, by agreement, said Commission was adjourned to the 15th day of January, A.D 1876, at which time and at the place aforesaid, I, then & there, in the presence of the Solicitors for the Complainants and Defendants, proceeded to take the following depositions, to wit

Mrs. Elizabeth Main, a witness of lawful age, produced upon the part of the Complainants, in rebutal, being duly sworn and examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commission by the Complainant and herewith returned, deposes and says, to the 1st Int: Do you know the parties to this suit?

Ans I do.

2d Int Do you, or not, know of any settlement between Lawson H. Main, and Laura C. Main, in April 1874? If yes, state what was done and said on that occasion?

Ans: They counted the interest up that was due to Laura, and then afterwards he sent her that check_ He gave her the check on the interest on the 643$ note & she gave her sister $73.25 of it_ She told him that she put the balance on the other account which he owed her, which was fourteen dollars ($14.00) & some cents_ Well, he said she should pay her sister part & the balance be put on the back interest what he owed her 3d Int, How the check then been given?

Ans: He had it with him, but he sent it to her afterwards

4th Int. Was there, or not, any conversation between Laura & Lawson
